HARBOUR AND ISLAND CRUISE

*SEASONAL

You won't believe the view

Join us for a tour of the harbour and islands aboard the only boat in Toronto to offer a 360° view from its upper deck. Camera-lovers will be in paradise as the Harbour Star gradually pulls away from its berth at Harbourfront Centre, offering countless postcard-quality photo opportunities of the ever-growing skyline as it heads toward the 14 islands. Once inside the canals and lagoons of the islands, you'll be enchanted by the beauty and tranquility of an area considered by many to be one of the city's best kept secrets. Relax on the side deck or enjoy a drink at the bar as your friendly guide tells you the fascinating story of the harbour and the islands as well as the ambitious revitalization that is boldly transforming Toronto's waterfront.

LOCALLY OPERATED. GLOBALLY CONNECTED.

MAJOR ATTRACTIONS
POINTS OF INTEREST

CN Tower
bus stops 14 16

The tallest tower in the western hemisphere! Visited by 1.5 million people annually, the Tower has something for everyone: simulated motion rides and a movie at ground level, a glass floor, an outdoor observation deck, a restaurant in the sky and EdgeWalk, Toronto's most extreme attraction.

Casa Loma
bus stop 7

Sir Henry's dream home had 98 rooms, 30 bathrooms, 2 secret passageways, and an 800 ft (240 m) tunnel. But wait, there's more: 25 fireplaces, 3 bowling alleys, a shooting gallery, a 1,700-bottle wine cellar, a library with space for 10,000 volumes and 5 acres of splendid gardens.

Bata Shoe Museum
bus stop 9

13,000 pairs and 4.500 years worth of shoes from around the world, all housed in an amazing building shaped to look like a gigantic shoebox. On display is everything from chestnut crushing boots and ancient Chinese embroidered silk shoes to modern ballroom dancing shoes.

Royal Ontario Museum
bus stop 10

6 million artifacts! The ROM's new eye-popping addition, the Michael Lee-Chin Crystal, might be a sight to behold from the outside, but the true wonders of Canada's largest museum lie within its extensive World Cultures and Natural History galleries.

Art Gallery of Ontario
bus stop 11

Frank Gehry's stunning new addition didn't just give the AGO a pretty face; it increased viewing space by nearly 50%, making all the more room for the works of Picasso, Van Gogh, Rembrandt, the Group of Seven and many more.

Hockey Hall of Fame
bus stop 18

The home of the Stanley Cup! So much more than the world's largest collection of hockey memorabilia, the Hockey Hall of Fame has two theatres as well as a sprawling simulated rink that hosts state-of-the-art interactive games.

St. Lawrence Market
bus stop 19

Here you'll find 50 specialty vendors offering everything from organic produce to exotic seafood flown in fresh daily, all working together inside a fantastic heritage building that originally opened as our second City Hall in 1845.

The Distillery
bus stop 20

This complex was once the world's largest distillery. Now it's a romantic, creative, and pedestrian-only village whose cobblestone streets are lined with great theatres, galleries, restaurants, cafes, and boutiques.

Railway Museum
bus stop 16

See the history of the railway in Toronto at this 9,300 square-metre roundhouse that once had stalls to repair and maintain up to 32 locomotives. The building was in use until 1986, when the Canadian Pacific Railway donated the location to the city to become a museum.

Eaton Center
bus stop 1

North America's largest downtown shopping centre is bursting with four levels of great shops and services under a spectacular vaulted glass ceiling. The mall is so large that there is a subway station at either end!

Yonge-Dundas Square
bus stop 1

This exciting public square regularly hosts concerts, fairs, promotions and a variety of other events. The Square is well situated at the city's busiest intersection, surrounded by three shopping centres, loads of restaurants, and overlooked by the country's tallest media tower.

Harbourfront Centre
bus stop 17

A year-round celebration of the arts! Check out music and dance in 12 diverse venues, buy food and souvenirs at the World Café and the International Marketplace, and enjoy free outdoor concerts at the WestJet Stage.

City Hall
bus stop 1

Two City Halls located right across the street from one another. The older of the two features elaborate stone carvings and a spectacular clock tower while the newer one is a futuristic-looking complex fronted by a beautiful public square.

Gardiner Museum
bus stop 10

Canada's only museum devoted entirely to ceramics! In addition to a collection of over 3,000 artifacts, this award-winning building also features a retail shop, restaurant, library, and a clay studio where classes are held.

Theatre District
bus stops 1 5 13 20

The theatre district is currently thought to center around King & John. Important area venues include the Royal Alexandra Theatre, The Princess of Wales, Roy Thompson Hall and the new Bell Lightbox. Many other great theatres can be found on Yonge St and in Old Town Toronto.

Chinatown
bus stop 11

Although famous for some of the world's finest Chinese food, this vibrant neighbourhood also offers Vietnamese and Thai delights at great prices. Be on the lookout for amazing deals on DVDs, groceries, housewares, artwork, clothing and electronics.

Kensington Market
bus stop 11

Take in the multitude of sights, sounds and smells as you wander through Kensington's narrow streets and alleys lined with everything from fresh fish and produce to vintage clothing and live music.

Bloor - Yorkville
bus stops 5 6 10

Bloor-Yorkville is a celebrated neighbourhood of style and culture that is home to more than 700 designer boutiques, galleries, fancy restaurants, lavish hotels and 4 major shopping centres.

Queen's Park
bus stop 10

The north half of this oval-shaped park is filled with shady trees and monuments. The south half is occupied by the majestic Ontario Legislative Building of 1892, which houses our Provincial Government.

Entertainment District
bus stops 12 13

Eight square blocks of fun. Here you'll find live theatre, movies, nightclubs, restaurants, hotels, shopping, Major League sports, and the tallest tower in the western hemisphere!

Ripley's Aquarium of Canada
bus stop 16

Toronto's newest attraction is Canada's largest indoor aquarium! Get up close and personal with thousands of marine animals from around the world as you explore Rainbow Reef, Dangerous Lagoon, and other exciting galleries!

University of Toronto
bus stop 9 10

Why not enlighten yourself by taking a stroll through the campus of Canada's largest university? You can enjoy free concerts, lectures, and galleries while exploring some of the city's oldest and finest buildings!

Baldwin Village
bus stop 11

It would be a big shame to miss this little paradise for the taste buds! Thai, French, Mediterranean, Italian, Japanese, Korean, Mexican, Indian cuisine and much more are all present here in this unique stretch of Baldwin Street, just north of the AGO.
