

Luminato Festival
180 Shaw Street, Suite 901
Toronto, ON, M5J 2W5

LUMINATO
FESTIVAL

Open to Discover
BIG Savings!

Art takes over life at Luminato Festival with epic premieres, award-winning artists, festivals-within-the-Festival, a new indoor venue in an urban Garden of Light at The Festival Hub and so much more

SAVE BIG

WITH BUNDLING

Buy four or five events and save 15%, or save 25% with six or more events. As a Bundler, you can add extra tickets at your bundle discount, enjoy special, non-advertised savings and exchange tickets at no extra cost.

Go online or call us at 416 368 4849 to order the best seats with free exchanges and special, non-advertised savings. Bundled savings are calculated at the check out.

Tickets: luminatofestival.com

416 368 4849

LUMINATO
FESTIVAL

June 19-28, 2015

R. Murray Schafer's epic oratorio Apocalypse

In one of the largest performance events Toronto has ever seen, Apocalypse blends professional and amateur talents in a cast of 1000 local singers, musicians, conductors, actors and dancers to create an epic empire of sound and movement. Featuring Nina Arsenault, Brent Carver, Denise Fujiwara, Tanya Tagaq, Kawli Westford and the voice of Laurie Anderson

Presented By:

Supported By:

June 26 + 27, 8PM

June 28, 2PM

By Lisa - Photos courtesy of the Joffe Ballet and the Joffe School of Ballet, with videography by Lisa and Photo by Lisa

El pasado es un animal grotesco

A multi-layered neo-fiction from Argentina, called a "smartly staged play" by The New York Times

June 19, 6:30PM

June 20, 8PM

June 21, 3PM

Malpasso Dance Company

A little slice of Havana featuring Cuba's hottest dancers with live music performed by Grammy Award-winning Cuban-American jazz composer Arturo O'Farrill

June 24-26, 8PM

7 Monologues

Celebrate the power of the singular storyteller with performances by award-winning actress Charlotte Rampling, prolific writer Daniel MacIvor, visual artist Shary Boyle and songwriter Christine Fellows, rising Brazilian dancer-choreographer Eduardo Fukushima and more

See all seven shows over two days for the ultimate visual, auditory and emotional feast. Buy four or five monologues, save 15%; buy six or more, save 25%

The Night Dances

Featuring the music of Benjamin Britten and the poetry of Sylvia Plath, with Charlotte Rampling from BBC's Broadchurch and renowned French cellist Sonia Wieder-Atherton

June 20, 8PM + June 21, 4PM

Who Killed Spalding Gray?

Written and performed by Daniel MacIvor, hailed as "one of our country's most prolific and talented authors" by Toronto Star

June 20, 5:45PM + June 21, 8PM

June 20 + 21

SEAM

A spoken-opera with live music by Buenos Aires artist Rafael Sprugelburt

June 20, 12:15PM + June 21, 8:30PM

The Referendum

A retelling of El Plebiscito, the campaign of hope used as the foundation for 2012 Oscar-nominated film No

June 20, 4:30PM + June 21, 1PM

Spell to Bring Lost Creatures Home

An intimate new work from songwriter Christine Fellows and artist Shary Boyle

June 20, 11AM + June 21, 2:30PM

Dolor Exquisito

Artist Emilio Garcia Wehbi and Bluff! actress Marisol Alvarez reinterpret French artist Sophie Calle

June 20, 10PM + June 21, 11:30AM

Between Contentions and How to Overcome the Great Tiredness?

Two solo performances by Brazilian choreographer and dancer Eduardo Fukushima

June 20, 2:30PM + June 21, 9:30PM

David Byrne's arena-scale spectacle Contemporary Color

10 pop artists including Nelly Furtado, Ad-Rock + Money Mark, St. Vincent and more sync steps with 10 high school colour guard teams in a flag-flipping, sequin-studded event. Think epic rock concert meets high-octane acrobatics, with pop rally spirit!

Presented by

June 22 + 23, 7PM

©2012 Bank of America. All rights reserved. A CIBC