

Steam Into History Spring/Summer Schedule for 2015

Ticket Pricing

Wednesday – Friday

1 Hour Ride to Glen Rock at 11:00

Adults- $23.00 Children- $15.00

2 ½ Hour Ride to Hanover Junction at 1:00

Adults- $26.00 Children- $16.00

Week-ends

Glen Rock 11:00 on Saturday, 1:00 on Sunday

Adults- $26.00, Children- $16.00

Hanover Junction – 1:00 on Saturday and 2:30 on Sunday

Adults- $28.00 Children- $16.00

Children- Ages 3 to 13

Toddlers Under 3 (Held on Lap) Free*

Pricing on special events will vary

Schedule may vary due to specials.

Runs during March, April, May are week-ends with exceptions. Rides in June, July and up to August 14 are Wednesday – Sunday, again with few exceptions.

Reading Express

Bring the kids to the Glen Rock Library for the Reading Express, the train will pick you up there! During the hour trip from the Library to Hanover Junction we will have storytime on the train! If you purchase tickets in advance, we will have them for pick up at the library. You can also purchase your tickets at the library with cash the morning of the event if seats are still available.

May 7, July 16 and August 13 Adult- $15, Child $11.

The James-Younger Gang, Train Robbery for Charity

This gang of American Outlaws was well known in the 19th century. The group included the notorious Jesse James and the Younger brothers. Their infamous group will be robbing the train for trinkets and jewels (provided). They will also be robbing for actual donations that will go to Penn-Mar Human Services of Glen Rock, PA and Freeland, MD. Come out for a good time and a great cause!

August 22 Normal pricing applies

Jeff Greenawalt, Frets and Strings

Enjoy the guitar and banjo while Jeff Greenawalt narrates and plays a bit of Goober Peas as he entertains our visitors. Mr. Greenawalt has an extensive background performing Civil War era music and a good bet you will want to hear him again and again.

April 19, May 16 & 24, June 27, and July 4.

Normal pricing applies

The Great Train Robbery Duo

Come on out and enjoy this classic rock favorite! The Great Train Robbery has been together for the past two decades. The original band released eight albums and has played for over 5,000 colleges, corporate events, festivals, fairs and night clubs. The GTR Duo is always a hit with our riders!

June 7, August 16.

Normal pricing applies

Kent Courtney

Kent Courtney is an entertainer, educator and living historian. Mr. Courtney is a nationally recognized authority on the Civil War and railroad history. There is never a dull moment with Kent Courtney on the train!

June 28. July 18, 19. August 1, 2.

Normal pricing applies

Corsets, Crinolines and Conspiracies

Join narrator Theresa Strange on Mothers' Day for this inside scoop on the ladies of the Civil War times. The men weren't the only ones involved in the action! Come hear about the lady spies of the war times! This is a good one for all the girlfriends, but the guys are welcome too!

May 10

Normal pricing applies

Steam Into History Spring/Summer Schedule for 2015

Murder Mystery

Otter Productions presents a Murder Mystery aboard the train. Help solve the mystery and enjoy the comedic shenanigans of this great group! Fun for the whole family!

*May 9 at 4:00 to Hanover Junction. Adult-
$36, Child $16*

General Grant

General Grant describes the value and importance of railroads to the Union war effort and how he used them for ultimate victory. This is done first person and in real time, now for this year in 1865, and Q&A with the general on those topics, his war exploits or his personal life are always welcome.

May 17, and July 5 Normal pricing applies

Hobo Run!

Watch out for Hobos! They are always trying to catch a free ride on the train! Luckily, the Hobos we tend to pick up are talented and will work for their ride. Hop aboard and be entertained by our uninvited, but talented guests! All rides go to Glen Rock.

May 23, July 11 and August 15 at 11,

Normal pricing applies

General and Mrs. Lee

Frank Orlando brings General Robert E. Lee to life with the help of his wife. Hear about his life, not only as a General, but also as a family man. Come witness this pair's passion for living history aboard our historic rails.

May 31. July 25, 26.

Normal pricing applies

Susquehanna Travellers

The Susquehanna Travellers have been playing traditional Nineteenth Century music for more than a decade, with a focus on the Civil War era and Irish music. The musicians are also Civil War re-enactors and are members of the 87th Volunteer Infantry.

June 20, 21 and July 12.

Normal pricing applies

Railroad Flyers

During the New Freedom Carnival, Steam Into History will do 25 minute roundtrip rides to Railroad Park and back. Come enjoy the best ride at the carnival!

July 1, 2, 3, 4 – starting at 5:00 p.m. and going every 30 minutes. Rides are $5!!

American Girl Day!

Get the little girls and their dolls dressed in their best and come for a ride on the train! Narrator Theresa will be talking about proper etiquette, fan techniques and era fashions. Bring the little guys too; it's fun for all. After the train ride, we will play games and have snacks!

July 8 at 11:00 a.m. to Glen Rock

Normal pricing applies

More to come! Check

www.steamintohistory.com for additional information.

