Area Overview

When you visit St. Louis' Union Station, you're in elite company. Not only did famous actor Kurt Russell visit Union Station, he filmed his blockbuster hit, Escape from New York in the historic train terminal. It's easy to mistake the cool, cosmopolitan area of St. Louis for New York City. But unlike the disaster-ridden New York featured in the film, Union Station is not a place you want to escape— especially if you're staying at the Drury Inn of Union Station.

When you venture into the surrounding downtown area, you'll want to make sure your stomach isn't grumbling. With Drury's free HOT! QUIKSTART® breakfast, which includes Belgian waffles, scrambled eggs, sausage and more, you'll be all set for whatever the day might bring. Maybe it's a Cardinals game at Busch Stadium that you're after, or maybe you'd like to spend the entire day at the City Museum where children and adults crawl through mazes.
