

$20 Adults | $16 Group (10+) | $5 Youth (18 and under)

Down East BEST
READERS' CHOICE THEATRE
IN MAINE

782-3200

www.thepublictheatre.org

The Cocktail Hour

by A.R. Gurney

Oct 17, 18, 19, 23, 24, 25, 26 - 2014

A well-to-do family becomes shaken and stirred when their middle-aged son announces he's written a play about them. Filled with Martini dry wit and banter, don't miss this entertaining and intelligent comedy about a family on the rocks starring Ellen Crawford and Mike Genovese (from NBC's E.R.), last seen at The Public Theatre in On Golden Pond.

I MARRIED AN ALIEN!

Susan Poulin returns in her hilarious new show

Nov 7, 8, 9 - 2014

Fri & Sat - 7:00 pm

Sun - 2:00 pm

Have you ever looked at your husband and thought, "What planet is he from?" Well, you can bet he's wondered the same about you! Ida Le Clair, (officially named the "funniest woman in Maine"), gives her hilarious advice on love, marriage and what to do when the double-wide's feeling too small for the both of you.

(sold separately from Subscription)

A Christmas Carol

adapted by Christopher Schario

Dec 12, 13, 14 - 2014

Don't miss The Public Theatre's critically acclaimed holiday production! Rediscover the magic of theatre, when six actors and a fiddler bring Charles Dickens' classic story to life in a way you've never imagined and will never forget.

(sold separately from Subscription)

All Kids
Only $5

VANYA AND SONIA AND MASHA AND SPIKE

by Christopher Durang

Jan 23, 24, 25, 29, 30, 31, Feb 1 - 2015

Winner of the 2013 Tony Award for Best Play, this hit Broadway comedy was hailed as "hugely entertaining" (USA Today), and "deliriously funny" (NY Times). Middle-aged siblings Vanya and Sonia (named after Chekhov characters by their hyper-educated parents) live uneventful lives in Bucks County, PA until their self-absorbed movie-star sister Masha returns home for the weekend with her 20-something boy-toy Spike in tow to shake things up. Thus begins a madcap family reunion filled with sibling rivalry, regret and a celebration of life before cell phones.

Outside Mullingar

by John Patrick Shanley

March 13, 14, 15, 19, 20, 21, 22 - 2015

Nominated for a 2014 Tony Award for Best Play! Next door neighbors Anthony and Rosemary have seem destined for each other since childhood, but they're Irish and stubborn to the core. Will these two lonely souls cross the plot of land that separates them and take a chance on love? Similar to his Oscar-winning screenplay for Moonstruck, John Patrick Shanley's latest romantic comedy about two eccentric singles struggling to reveal their hearts to each other, is a valentine to the wonder and weirdness of love.

THE SUNSHINE BOYS

by Neil Simon

May 1, 2, 3, 7, 8, 9, 10 - 2015

The legendary comedy team of Lewis and Clark are no longer speaking to each other on or off the stage. But when these cranky comics are convinced to reunite for a TV special, who will get the last laugh? Can they get through their most famous sketch one last time without killing each other? Don't miss Neil Simon's comic masterpiece about showbiz, aging, and the true meaning of friendship.