

Find the Warwick Valley!

We are located just 55 miles from NYC, and about 125 miles from Philadelphia & Hartford. Easily accessible from major roadways, there is also bus service & nearby train stations.

NJ Transit buses run from NYC Port Authority Terminal into Warwick. NJ Transit train stops nearby are at Harriman, Tuxedo, Sloatsburg and Middletown. See NJ Transit Schedule online: www.njtransit.com

From the South New York State Thruway to Exit 16 (Harriman). Make left at exit. Follow Route 17 West to Exit 127 (Greycourt Road). Make left at exit and proceed to traffic light. Diagonal left through traffic light onto Kings Highway (sign indicates Sugar Loaf). Pass through Village of Sugar Loaf and continue to traffic light in Village of Warwick.

From the North Take the New York State Thruway south to Exit 17, Newburgh. Follow the signs for I-84 west. Take Route 84 west to Exit 4E (Route 17 east). Follow Route 17 east to Exit 124, Goshen/Florida. At the end of the exit ramp, make a right onto Route 17A south. Proceed on 17A south through the Village of Florida. Continue on 17A (also Route 94) into the Village of Warwick.

Directions from the George Washington Bridge (Northbound) Take the George Washington Bridge to the Palisades Parkway north. Then connect with the Thruway Exit 9N. Take Exit 16 in Harriman onto Route 17 west. Take Exit 127 (Greycourt Road). Make left at exit and proceed to traffic light. Diagonal left through traffic light onto Kings Highway (sign indicates Sugar Loaf). Pass through Village of Sugar Loaf and continue to traffic light in Village of Warwick.

Western New York State Take Route 17 east to Exit 124 (Route 17A south). Make right at exit. Follow Route 17A south through the Village of Florida. Continue on 17A (also Route 94) into the Village of Warwick.

