Our History

Born before the Great Depression, S. Truett Cathy began his entrepreneurial career at eight years old, selling bottled Coca-Colas in front of his home. From there, he became a highly successful restaurateur and launched one of the most successful chicken restaurant chains in the United States. Established in the 1960s, Chick-fil-A has more than 1,800 restaurants across the country and is now the #1 chicken restaurant chain in America.

For the past 50 years, guests have come to love the signature Chick-fil-A® Chicken Sandwich Truett created. We have also become renowned for our great tasting food, service, hospitality and business model.

Our Values

Excellence, loyalty, integrity and generosity are the core values that have shaped our brand. These words are embodied in our vision and come to life as we fulfill our Corporate Purpose to “have a positive influence on all who come in contact with Chick-fil-A.” We cordially invite guests to come meet the Home Office team and experience our genuine hospitality for themselves!
