

FREE ADMISSION ★ Only steps from the Ferry Building!

SAN FRANCISCO RAILWAY MUSEUM

Get there on the F-line
or on the California St.
cable car

Ride History to See History!

Take an F-line historic streetcar or a California Street cable car to this FREE attraction
within steps of the Ferry Building

Unique gift items too!

77 Steuart Street • (415) 974-1948 • streetcar.org
at the Steuart St. F-line stop, near the Ferry Building

FOR A QUICK FUN STOP

with family and friends

Visit the Free

SAN FRANCISCO RAILWAY MUSEUM

See how streetcars and cable cars helped build—and still energize—one of the world's greatest cities.

MUSEUM FEATURES

Historic film and photographs

Special exhibits

San Francisco transportation artifacts

Unique memorabilia and souvenirs

great for kids of all ages!

Open daily 10:00am-6:00pm* at the Steuart St. F-line stop, kitty-corner from the Ferry Building 1½ blocks from the California Street cable car terminal

Tours and school groups welcome. Call (415) 974-1948.

A program of Market Street Railway, the nonprofit preservation partner of the San Francisco Municipal Railway.

www.streetcar.org

* Closed Mondays in January and February.