

BURNABY

IN THE HEART OF METRO VANCOUVER

VISITOR'S GUIDE

City of
Burnaby

GETTING AROUND

By Air: The Vancouver International Airport is located approximately 25 minutes from Burnaby.

By Car: All major routes provide access to Burnaby including Highway #1, Lougheed Highway, Canada Way, Hastings Street, Kingsway, and Marine Way.

By Public Transit: TransLink provides a completely integrated regional public transportation system that includes:

- SkyTrain and Canada Line: Explore Burnaby by SkyTrain, the region's automated rapid transit system. Four stations are located in south Burnaby on the Expo Line, and seven stations are located in north Burnaby on the Millennium Line. Travel to Downtown Vancouver, New Westminster and Surrey in less than 25 minutes. Connect from Vancouver to Richmond and YVR Airport on the Canada Line.
- Coast Mountain Bus: Offers convenient, economical, safe, and regular service throughout Metro Vancouver, including connections to SkyTrain stations.
- For transit information call 604.953.3333. www.translink.ca

By Taxi: Bonny's Taxi is the largest taxi company servicing Burnaby. 604.435.6655.

By Bicycle: Cyclists can safely ride along the city's extensive network of Urban Trails, Bikeways and Cycle Roads.

Visit www.burnaby.ca to view or download the Burnaby Bike Map. Bicycles are permitted on SkyTrain during certain periods of the day, and most buses are equipped with bicycle racks. Call 604.953.3333 for details.

Printed on recycled paper using UV inks which release no VOCs into the atmosphere.

EXPLORE BURNABY BY SKYTRAIN ▼

Printed September 2015

