

BRUCE LEE

EXHIBIT & TOURS

A DRAGON LIVES HERE

A must-see exhibit for the Bruce Lee fan and anyone interested in Seattle and its local history.

The WING

Wing Luke Museum of the Asian Pacific American Experience

719 South King Street · Seattle, WA 98104 · wingluke.org

DO YOU KNOW BRUCE?

PART 4

In 32 years of life, Bruce Lee became a global icon and changed the world. Before his success, he spent formative years in Seattle – learning English, meeting his future wife, and establishing his first martial arts studio.

In this exhibit, retrace Seattle locales special to Bruce Lee and get an up-close look at how this city – a place for innovation and entrepreneurs – also shaped his trailblazing approach.

Lead Sponsor

Prime Sponsor

TICKETS & TOURS

Open Tuesday-Sunday, 10am-5pm

Book online at doyouknowbruce.com

Bruce Lee's Chinatown tour

Tue-Sat @ 10:15am – includes lunch and walking tour

Adults: $41.95

Seniors: $35.95

Students (13-18/student ID): $25.95

Children (5-12): $25.95

Under 5: Free

See Bruce Lee for FREE! Members receive unlimited free admission, a limited edition Bruce Lee membership card, and other exclusive perks and discounts!

doyouknowbruce.com

206.623.5124 · visit@wingluke.org

© & © Bruce Lee Enterprises, LLC. All Rights Reserved.

Smithsonian Affiliate

Wing Luke Museum of the Asian Pacific American Experience
719 South King Street · Seattle, WA 98104 · wingluke.org