STEAM TRAINS

Climb aboard living history!

The journey begins in the small town of Elbe, Washington. The train will take passengers out of town and slip into a thick forest, travel along a mountain stream, cross the glacial fed Upper Nisqually River and arrive at our museum. Our route covers 14 miles between Elbe and Mineral on a round trip two hour excursion that includes a stop at the museum.

Trains depart from
54124 Mountain Highway East,
Elbe, WA 98330
