

SAN FRANCISCO MOVIE TOURS

Rated 4.8 out of 5 stars by past guests!

Reserve your seat now...

on San Francisco's #1 rated new tour. Visitors, including first timers and veterans alike, delight in experiencing the well-known sights and landmarks of San Francisco in a new and exciting way with San Francisco MOVIE TOURS! You watch actual movie clips on the "Theater-on-Wheels"™ big screen, as you pass by locations made famous by classic and contemporary movies. Guests get a unique perspective on the history of San Francisco simply by following its cinematic past. Your enthusiastic and interactive actor-turned-guide provides behind-the-scenes information and trivia about San Francisco and your favorite films.

Did you know?

- Vertigo, Mrs. Doubtfire, Bullitt, Dirty Harry, The Rock, Princess Diaries and Pursuit of Happyness, as well as 600 other movies have been filmed in San Francisco?
- Clint Eastwood, Frank Sinatra, Robin Williams, Jimmy Stewart, Kim Novak, Meg Ryan, Barbra Streisand, Brad Pitt, Jennifer Lopez, Gene Hackman and Will Smith have all starred in movies filmed in San Francisco?
- Sean Connery lived in a cabin on Alcatraz while filming The Rock; Clint Eastwood was not the original choice to play Dirty Harry; Robin Williams dressed up as Mrs. Doubtfire and named the streets of San Francisco to test the believability of his character; Steve McQueen's chase scene in Bullitt took over 3 weeks to film?

Advance Purchase Strongly Recommended

Check availability and buy tickets at

SanFranciscoMovieTours.com

or call  at

(800) 979-3370 or (415) 391-3370

We look forward to providing you the red carpet treatment you deserve!

SAN FRANCISCO MOVIE TOURS

TOUR OVERVIEW

Your 3-hour tour includes over 65 movie clips from over 50 of the most famous movies made in San Francisco. Your tour includes 2 breaks. Your first break is at San Francisco's world class City Hall. Your second break takes you to the quintessential San Francisco movie location, Fort Point, where Kim Novak leaps into the water at the base of the Golden Gate Bridge and Jimmy Stewart saves her in Vertigo. We also have numerous photo stops along the way that include famous San Francisco landmarks and movie locations.

The only city tour you will need to take.

Worried about not getting what you may see on a standard city tour? You will see even more of the city on this tour, as you go through the following areas of San Francisco: Fisherman's Wharf, North Beach, Financial District, Nob Hill, Union Square, Alamo Square/Painted Ladies, Civic Center, Haight-Ashbury, Golden Gate Park, The Presidio, Golden Gate Bridge/Fort Point and Pacific Heights. Whether it's San Francisco's historic bridges, unique neighborhoods, beautiful homes or natural beauty, you'll see why filmmakers continue to find the perfect backdrops for their movies in San Francisco.

Family Friendly

Want to enjoy a tour that's also fun and interesting for kids? The route includes locations from Princess Diaries, Fall House, Monsters vs. Aliens, Dr. Dooblittle, George of the Jungle, Hulk, and X-Men 3, among others.

Advance Purchase Strongly Recommended

Check availability and buy tickets for public tours at:

SanFranciscoMovieTours.com

or call Zerve at

(800) 979-3370 or (415) 391-3370

For groups and private tours, call (415) 624-4949