do you speak SONOMA?

Sonomads wielding forkscrews go coasting in Sonoma County. Confused? Don't be. Sonoma County is so unique, we have our own language – and we want you to learn it, too.

Spend some time here – whether it's a lakeadaysical afternoon at Lake Sonoma or an evening spent being epicurious trying out new restaurants. You'll quickly discover that Sonoma County provides a genuine and adventurous Wine Country experience that's perfect for an independent traveler, like you.

Top things to do in Sonoma County

- Visit a winery – more than 370 to choose from – and taste a new varietal, try a food pairing, or enjoy a vineyard tour.
- Get outdoors – Nature calls travelers to hike through redwood forests, paddle along a river, cycle the back roads or just enjoy the sounds of nature.
- Explore the coast – Miles of pristine sand, rugged cliffs, scenic viewpoints, whale watching, and more invite visitors to visit more than 50 miles of Pacific coastline.
- Relax at a spa – Spas enhance any visit. Rejuvenate with a great massage at a day spa or a resort.
- Taste local foods – Get a true taste of Sonoma County. Many restaurant owners either grow their own produce and meats or source them locally.
- Attend a festival – Whether you enjoy wine and food, music, performing or fine arts, there are events and festivals that are sure to enhance your visit.
