

Reopening: August 1, 2015

/ A collection that speaks for itself.

VISIT US /

The National Museum of Toys and Miniatures preserves and exhibits the world's largest fine-scale miniature collection and one of the nation's largest toy collections on public display.

Explore centuries of childhood, culture, and manufacturing through dolls, soldiers, teddy bears, games, and more, including a nine-foot tall dollhouse. View room settings, architectural structures, and decorative arts stunningly crafted in 1:12 or smaller scale from major miniature artists, including a seven-inch tall cabinet with 19 secret compartments. Come explore all T/m has to offer from special exhibitions to an active schedule of programs and tours for adults and families.

HOURS & ADMISSION /

HOURS

Open daily / 10 am – 4pm

Closed Tuesdays

ADMISSION

Ages 5 and up / $5

Ages 4 and under / Free

Members / Free

UMKC faculty, staff, and students with ID / Free

Active duty service members with ID / Free

LOCATION

5235 Oak Street, Kansas City, Missouri 64112

T/m is located off 52nd Street on the campus of the University of Missouri-Kansas City, just minutes from the Country Club Plaza. Free parking is available in front of the museum.

The National Museum of Toys and Miniatures is ADA accessible.