

The Historic New Orleans Collection

Recipient of TripAdvisor's CERTIFICATE OF EXCELLENCE

ON THE COVER: Steamer Princess (detail); between 1858 and February 27, 1859; salted paper photoprint; Jay Dearborn Edwards, photographer; The Historic New Orleans Collection, 1982.32.7

THE HISTORIC NEW ORLEANS COLLECTION

is a nonprofit institution dedicated to preserving the distinctive history and culture of New Orleans and the Gulf South. Founded in 1966 through the Kemper and Leila Williams Foundation, THNOC operates as a museum, research center, and publisher in the heart of the French Quarter.

Many of THNOC's offerings are free and open to the public. For information on current and upcoming programming, visit www.hnoc.org or call (504) 523-4662.

1. 533 Royal Street

Williams Gallery
Louisiana History Galleries
Guided Tours
The Shop at The Collection

2. 400–410 Chartres Street

Williams Research Center
Boyd Cruise Gallery
Laura Simon Nelson
Galleries

The Historic
New Orleans
Collection

MUSEUM • RESEARCH CENTER • PUBLISHER

www.hnoc.org

Scan the code with the reader on your smart phone to visit the website.