Phoenix/Tucson: The Sonoran Desert - Box Canyon Tour in Central/Southern Arizona

Situated about halfway between Phoenix and Tucson, this tour takes you to the heart of the Sonoran Desert. Our 37-mile loop follows abandoned mining trails from the late 1800's through giant Saguaro and Ocotillo cactus. Stop at an old gold mining camp, see ancient Indian rock art, and discover a stagecoach depot at the bottom of the Box Canyon. The canyon itself is seven miles long and, at many points, only 10 feet wide with cliff faces reaching nearly 900 feet high!

Your half-day adventure begins with a vehicle and tour safety briefing on basic maneuvers in our exclusive training area. This instruction is free and is not part of the 3-hour tour. For safety reasons, all drivers must demonstrate satisfactory operating skills to take a vehicle out on a tour. This also helps your guide determine the best route for the day.

All adventures include: helmets, goggles, gloves and bandanas; professionally trained instructor-guides; ATV usage of automatic Yamaha Grizzly 350cc and Polaris 500cc; liability insurance; and cold bottled water & assorted candy bars.
