

Mount Morris Park Historic Walking Tour with Lunch (Mon, Wed, Sat. 11am – 1pm) ($65.00/Retail with taxes) (Non-tax $60)

The tour will make its way across 125th street exploring some of the many famous sites like the Apollo Theater, Theresa Hotel, the Adam Clayton Powell, Jr. Statue and the Studio Museum of Harlem. Turning on Lenox Avenue/Malcolm X Boulevard to 124th Street and into the Mount Morris Park Historic District. This area was designated in 1971, by the New York City Landmarks Preservation Commission as a historic district. Being one of the earliest landmarked districts in the five boroughs, and recently extended September 2015 to include an additional six blocks in Central Harlem.

Going north from West 118th to West 124th Streets and West from Fifth Avenue to Adam Clayton Powell, Jr. Boulevard (7th Avenue) Mount Morris Park Historic District showcases a remarkable blend of late 19th and early 20th century residential and church architecture associated with the Gilded Age.

The oldest buildings in the historic district are three from 1870 Second Empire Style row houses with mansard roofs at 124 to 128 West 123rd Street. The well-known "Doctors' Row" built by William Tuthill the architect of Carnegie Hall in New York City commonly known as West 122nd Street, Mount Morris Park West, and Malcolm X Blvd., all demonstrate the remarkable survival of substantially unaltered 19th-century streetscapes, rare in most areas of Manhattan.

Notable past and present residents of the area are Broadway composers Richard Rogers, Oscar Hammerstein II and Lorenz Hart, poet Maya Angelo, chef Marcus Samuelsson, photographer James Van Der Zee and politician Richard Croker, Sr., to name a few.

Once the walking tour comes to a close you will be treated to a lunch at a local Harlem restaurant.

Welcome to Harlem takes pride in showing off our beautiful city and sharing the history of the Mount Morris Park Historic District and all of the beautiful sights along the way!

Highlights

- Guided walk across 125th Street and through the Mount Morris historic District
- Sights include the famous Apollo Theater & the Theresa Hotel
- Informative tour guide provides live commentary
- Facts & stories about 125th Street and the Harlem

Inclusions

- Guided walking tour of the 125th Street and the Mount Morris historic District
- Live tour commentary provided in English
- Lunch

Know Before You Book

- Children 7 and younger are free.
 - Maximum 25 people per group.
 - Check-in is 15 minutes prior to the booked tour start time.
-

Cancellation Policy

You can cancel free of charge until 72 hours before your reservation starts. After that time, no cancellations, changes or refunds will be made.

Location

Harlem, New York, New York 10027, United States

Harlem Renaissance Walking Tour with Lunch (Fri. 11am – 1pm) ($65.00/Retail with taxes) (Non-tax $60)

It is time for you to embark on a journey through present-day Harlem – to see the people and places of the Harlem Renaissance and discover why this period in American history was so magical and important for African-American culture. Did you ever wonder where Jungle Alley was, or why 135th Street was such a crucial area during Harlem Renaissance? Well now is the time to lace up your sneakers and bring your imagination.

Let us help you to discover some of the most beautiful and wonderful theaters, homes, and churches in Harlem that were jumping during the Renaissance. Also, on our journey you will hear, see and feel the history about some of the most influential individuals who helped to cultivate this magical journey known as the Harlem Renaissance -- Langston Hughes, Pig Foot Mary, Duke Ellington, Madame CJ Walker, Jacob Lawrence, James Van Der Zee, Zora Neals Hurston and many others.

Once the walking tour comes to a close you will be treated to a lunch at a local Harlem restaurant.

Welcome to Harlem takes pride in showing off our beautiful city and sharing the history of the Harlem Renaissance.

Highlights

- Guided walk across 125th Street to 137th Street area
Sights include the famous Apollo Theater, Harlem YMCA, Striver's Row and the Schomburg Center for Research in Black Culture
 - Facts & stories about the Harlem's rich history
 - Informative tour guide provides live commentary
-

Inclusions

- Guided walk across 125th Street to 137th Street area
 - Live tour commentary provided in English
 - Lunch
-

Know Before You Book

- Children 7 and younger are free.
 - Maximum 25 people per group.
 - Check-in is 15 minutes prior to the booked tour start time.
-

Cancellation Policy

You can cancel free of charge until 72 hours before your reservation starts. After that time, no cancellations, changes or refunds will be made.

Location

Harlem, New York, New York 10027, United States

Harlem Gospel and Brunch Tour (Sunday, 9am – 1pm) – (Adult $92.55 and Children $65.00 with taxes) (Non-tax $85/$60)

This tour first leads us through Mount Morris Park Historical District area. Here you will find a multitude of churches rich with history and also where our founding fathers made their homes. Some of the most well-known musicians and entertainers started their journeys here. Much of the music that began here is now immortalized in American Pop Culture for future generations to enjoy.

Heading through uptown on a Sunday morning you will hear and enjoy the sights and sounds of Harlem at its best. Toe-clapping, foot-stomping, and the soulful rhythms of Black gospel music fill the air; participate in sermons and homilies given by Harlem's most prominent. Celebrate with the world famous congregational choirs of the Convent Avenue Baptist Church, United House of Prayer, Abyssinian Baptist Church and the Roman Catholic Church of the Resurrection, whose renowned singers will have you jumping in your seat.

Now that you have the feel of the spiritual energy flowing through you what about topping off your day with some of the area's best kept secrets? Fine dining at reasonable prices. Let Harlem's finest culinary masters delight and tempt you with their authentic ethnic delights - just for you!

The gospel and brunch tour is a day well spent both outdoors and indoors and will be an experience you will not soon forget!

Highlights

- Baptist service with gospel music
 - Brunch
 - Guided walk across 125th Street to 116th street area
 - Sights include the famous Apollo Theater & the Theresa Hotel
 - Informative tour guide provides live commentary
 - Facts & stories about Harlem's rich history
-

Inclusions

- Guided walking tour of the 125th Street to 116th street area
 - Baptist service with gospel music
 - Brunch
 - Live tour commentary provided in English
-

Know Before You Book

- Children under 7 are free
- Children 7 – 11 years' old

- Maximum 25 people per group.
 - Check-in is 15 minutes prior to the booked tour start time.
-

Cancellation Policy

You can cancel free of charge until 72 hours before your reservation starts. After that time, no cancellations, changes or refunds will be made.

Location

Harlem, New York, New York 10027, United States

Harlem Jammin Jazz Tour (Thursday/Sunday 6pm – 9:30pm) ($61.25/Retail with taxes) (Non-tax $56.25)

Harlem elevated jazz to the world stage and each year thousands of visitors and tourists flock to Harlem club's seeking to experience the soulful music that Harlem has come to be known for. When the lights go down the soulful immortal sounds and rhythms of Duke Ellington, Lena Horne, Billie Holiday, Ella Fitzgerald, Miles Davis (to name just a few). Their voices live on throughout the city as performers pay tribute to these greats every night.

What better way to end an evening than in Harlem with some sightseeing and live jazz. Yes, our evening Jazz Tour is just what you need. Enjoy a tour across 125th Street, then a lovely stroll along Adam Clayton Powell Blvd., up to uptown and finish at a stop in Harlem known for some of the best live jazz. During the tour you will see historical churches and famous night clubs of the past. A glimpse at some of the most beautiful homes that Harlem has to offer and other historical places of interest. Food and drinks are available for purchase at the jazz location. So come hungry for some history, jazz and food. This will be a night that you won't forget!

You'll consider the occasion as one of your great nights out, so take the A train to 125th Street and get the party started.

Highlights

- Visit to jazz clubs
 - Guided walk across 125th Street to 132nd street area
 - Sights include the famous Apollo Theater & the Theresa Hotel
 - Informative tour guide provides live commentary
 - Facts & stories about Harlem's rich history
-

Inclusions

- Guided walking tour of the 125th Street to 132nd street area
 - Live tour commentary provided in English
 - Live jazz
-

Know Before You Book

- Children must 15 and older
 - Maximum 25 people per group.
 - Check-in is 15 minutes prior to the booked tour start time.
-

Location

Welcome to Harlem, 2360 Frederick Douglass Blvd., New York, New York 10027, United States

Harlem Food Tasting Tour (Saturday 3:30pm – 6:30pm) ($61.25/Retail with taxes) (Non-tax $56.25)

Taste bud check one, two, three! Yes, our Harlem Food Tasting Tour will awaken and delight your taste buds with some of Harlem's best-known and up and coming establishments. Join us as we stroll through the Central Harlem and the Mount Morris Park Historic District, exploring the history, culture, architecture, and local entertainment offerings that make these areas so exciting and unique. On this guided walking tour, you will taste delicious specialties from classic family/traditional restaurants, as well as, "NEW" up and coming establishments. Once the tour is complete, you can say "You had a taste of Harlem." Your food-tasting journey includes delicious tastings from (up to six (6) locations per tour) Stops include--but are not limited to.

* Harlem Karibe * Astor Row Cafe * Jacobs' Soul Food * SottoCasa* Sexy Taco* Settepani* Lady Lexis Sweets.

Highlights

- Food Tasting at local restaurants
 - Guided walk in Central Harlem and the Mount Morris Park Historic District
 - Informative tour guide provides live commentary
 - Facts & stories about Harlem's rich history
-

Inclusions

- All tastings are included in your ticket purchase. The group tastes on the go from 6 establishments (inside or outside).
 - Walking Tour in Central Harlem and Mount Morris Park Historical District
 - Food tasting up to six locations
-

Know Before You Book

- Food (stops) subject to change without notice.
 - Ages 16 and older preferred
 - Sorry, no small children.
 - Alcoholic beverages are not included. NOR ARE THEY SERVED OR CONSUMED ON THE TOUR
 - Maximum 20 people per group.
 - Check-in is 15 minutes prior to the booked tour start time.
-

Location

Harlem Karibe, 2234 Adam Clayton Powell Jr Blvd, New York, New York 10027

Harlem Afternoon Jazz Tour (Tuesday 10:30am – 2pm) ($61.25/Retail with taxes) (Non-tax $56.25)

Jazz might have started in New Orleans, however Harlem elevated to the world stage! Each year thousands of visitors and tourists flock to Harlem club's seeking to experience and hear the soulful music that Harlem has come to be known for. No more waiting for the lights to go down to enjoy the soulful immortal sounds and rhythms of Duke Ellington, Lena Horne, Billie Holiday, Ella Fitzgerald, Miles Davis (to name just a few). Their voices live on throughout the city as performers pay tribute to these greats every night.

Every Tuesday afternoon Harlem play's host to some of today's most talented jazz musicians and history's greatest jazz music in a musical tribute of epic proportions. Concertgoers will spend each Tuesday afternoon surrounded by the cool vibrations of jazz as they are soothed and invigorated by seemingly magical strings and horns. This is an event for all of the senses, and it is meant to be both mentally and spiritually up lifting.

The series is artistically directed by Craig Harris, a trombonist, composer and longtime Harlem resident. Harris has been a major figure in the Harlem jazz scene since 1976. He has performed throughout the USA and abroad with some of the genre's most important figures.

Enjoy a tour across 125th Street, then a lovely stroll along Adam Clayton Powell Blvd., up to 135th Street area. Then sit back and relax for a live jazz concert.

You'll consider the occasion as one of your great afternoons out, so take the A train to 125th Street and get the party started.

The upcoming schedule of performers is listed on www.harlemjazzboxx.com. If you don't want to take the tour you can purchase a ticket for the live jazz concert.

Tuesday Afternoon: There are two set: 1st set: Noon – 12:45pm (15-min break) 2nd set: 1:00 – 1:45.

Highlights

- Live jazz concert
- Guided walk across 125th Street to 135th street area
- Sights include the famous Apollo Theater & the Theresa Hotel
- Informative tour guide provides live commentary
- Facts & stories about Harlem's rich history

Inclusions

- Live jazz concert
- Guided walking tour of the 125th Street to 135th street area
- Live tour commentary provided in English

Know Before You Book

- Children 7 and younger are free.
 - Maximum 25 people per group.
 - Check-in is 15 minutes prior to the booked tour start time.
-

Cancellation Policy

You can cancel free of charge up to 72 hours before your reservation starts. After that time, no cancellations, changes or refunds will be made.

Location

Harlem, New York, New York 10027, United States

Harlem Jazz Series (Tuesday Afternoon/Friday Evening) ($16.35/Retail this includes taxes) (Non-tax $15.00)

Are you ready to enjoy some of the best jazz being performed in New York City? If so, make your way to Harlem any Tuesday afternoon or Friday evening and set back. Each year thousands of visitors and tourists flock to Harlem club's seeking to experience and hear the soulful music that Harlem has come to be known for. No more waiting for the lights to go down or paying a hefty price to enjoy the soulful immortal sounds and rhythms of Duke Ellington, Lena Horne, Billie Holiday, Ella Fitzgerald, Miles Davis (to name just a few). Their voices and music live on throughout the city as performers pay tribute to these greats every day.

Every Tuesday afternoon and Friday evening Harlem play's host to some of today's most talented jazz musicians and history's greatest jazz music in a musical tribute of epic proportions. Concertgoers will spend each Tuesday afternoon or Friday evening surrounded by the cool vibrations of jazz as they are soothed and invigorated by seemingly magical strings and horns. This is an event for all of the senses, and it is meant to be both mentally and spiritually up lifting.

The Harlem Jazz Series is artistically directed by Craig Harris, a trombonist, composer and longtime Harlem resident. Harris has been a major figure in the Harlem jazz scene since 1976. He has performed throughout the USA and abroad with some of the genre's most important figures.

Tuesday Afternoon: There are two set: 1st set: Noon – 12:45pm (15-min break) 2nd set: 1:00 – 1:45. The house doors open at 11:30 a.m.

Friday evening: There are two set: 1st set: 7:00p.m. – 7:45pm (15-min break) 2nd set: 8:00pm – 8:45pm. The house doors open at 6:30pm.

The upcoming schedule of performers is listed on www.harlemjazzboxx.com.

Highlights

- Live jazz concert
-

Inclusions

- Live jazz concert
-

Know Before You Book

- Children 7 and younger are free.
- House doors open 30 minutes before the performance.

Cancellation Policy

You can cancel free of charge until 72 hours before your reservation starts. After that time, no cancellations, changes or refunds will be made.

Location

Rendall Memorial Presbyterian Church, 59 West 137th Street, New York, New York 10027,
United States

Safe House Jazz Parlor (1st Thursday of each month, 8pm – 2 hours) – ($65.00/Retail with taxes) (Non-tax $60.00)

This 2-hour intimate experience provides a haven where music lovers can relax and engage with musicians while enjoying hors d'oeuvres, wine and dessert. This exceptional evening runs the 1st Thursday of every month with different musicians performing at various homes in Harlem.

The Harlem Safe House Jazz Parlor is artistically directed by Craig Harris, a trombonist, composer and longtime Harlem resident. When Craig Harris exploded onto the jazz scene in 1976, he brought the entire history of the jazz trombone with him. From the growling gutbucket intensity of early New Orleans music to the refined, articulate improvisation of the modern era set forth by J.J. Johnson and into the confrontational expressionism of the '60s avant-garde, Craig handled the total vernacular the way a skilled orator utilizes the spoken word. He has performed with a variety of progressive jazz's most influential figures, and his projects display both a unique sense of concept and a total command of the sweeping expanse of musical expression. It is those two qualities that have dominated Craig's past forty years of activity, bringing him far beyond the confines of the jazz world, into the sphere of multimedia and performance art as composer, performer, curator and artistic director.

Highlights

- Intimate jazz concert in a brownstone
 - Hors d'oeuvres, wine, and dessert
-

Inclusions

- Intimate jazz concert in a brownstone
 - Hors d'oeuvres, wine, and dessert
-

Know Before You Book

- Maximum 40 people per group
 - House doors open at 7:30pm
-

Cancellation Policy

You can cancel free of charge until 72 hours before your reservation starts. After that time, no cancellations, changes, or refunds will be made

Location

Harlem, New York, New York 10027, United States – The location will be emailed to the client once we receive a confirmation, because the location changes to different homes in the neighborhood

Harlem Easter Gospel Celebration (April 15, 2017 11am - noon) (Retail/$21.75 with taxes) (Non-tax $20.00)

If you have never been to an authentic gospel concert, look no further. Welcome to Harlem is the tour company that will provide you with an unforgettable experience on Easter Eve!

This one hour Easter Eve Gospel Concert will bring joy to your heart and soul. Gospel music is a powerfully uplifting experience that everyone should experience. We intend to have you toe-clapping, foot-stomping, and singing along with the soulful rhythms of Black gospel music that will fill the church on this day.

House doors open at 10:15 AM

Highlights

- Live gospel concert
-

Inclusions

- Live gospel concert
-

Know Before You Book

- Children 7 and younger are free.
 - House doors open 45 minutes before the performance.
-

Cancellation Policy

You can cancel free of charge until 72 hours before your reservation starts. After that time, no cancellations, changes or refunds will be made.

Location

Mt. Olivet Baptist Church 201 Lenox Avenue, New York, New York 10027, United States