

What is an Empanada?

An empanada is a stuffed pastry baked in many places in Spain and in Latin America. The name comes from the Spanish verb "empanar" meaning to wrap or to coat in bread!

How do you make them?

Step 1: Fold

Step 2: Bake

Step 3: Choose a Flavor

Sweet

Savory

Our Empanadas are made fresh daily and are never left over from the day before!