

October 16 | 11:00AM

Legacy Lecture with Author Elaine Weiss @ National First Ladies Library

Elaine Weiss presents her book "Fruits of Victory: The Woman's Land Army of America" a story of the "farmerettes" during WWI. This is a FREE lecture.

October 16 | 6:30PM

Play Big-A Chalk Talk with Jen Welter @ Pro Football Hall of Fame

Welter made history as the first woman coach in the NFL when she joined the Arizona Cardinals coaching staff in 2015. She will tell her story, answer questions, and you get a copy of her book.

October 20 & 21 | 7:30PM

Dracula...the Ballet @ Canton Palace Theatre

Unleash your inner vampire. Dracula...the Ballet, a tale of hypnotic power, boundless love and mesmerizing horror returns by popular demand just in time for Halloween.

October 20 & 21 | 4:30PM-8:30PM

Spooky Science @ Beech Creek Botanical Gardens

Spooky Science is all about teaching people in a fun & creative environment about all of the things in nature that can "Spook or Creep" them out, like spiders, snakes, and bats.

October 20-22 | Friday and Saturday 7:00PM & Sunday at 4:00PM

Kill on the Hill @ Spring Hill Historic Home

Enjoy this murder mystery based on the classic Victorian horror novel, "Dracula" by Bram Stoker. Tickets are just $15 per person and include performance and dessert.

October 21 | 9:00AM-3:00PM

Downtown Canton Flea in the Canton Arts District

Enjoy more than 50 vendors, offering art, crafts, antiques, handmade goods, vintage finds, farm fare, food & drink, collectibles and all kinds of crazy stuff you won't be able to find anywhere else!

October 21 | 7:00PM-11:00PM

Spirits & Spirits Masquerade Ball @ The Players Guild Theatre

Dancing on the Mainstage, food, drinks, and some very surprising moments await you with some of their most memorable, haunting characters. Tickets are $50 per person.

October 22 | 1:00PM-5:00PM

Fall Crawl @ Gervasi Vineyard

Stroll the grounds while making your way to all four stops and select a beer or wine taste from each stop on the crawl paired with a GV favorite bite. Tickets are $29 and must be purchased in advance!

