

OUR COMMITMENT TO YOU

We are committed to providing our customers with excellent quality antiques and collectibles in a professional and elegant setting.

All our exhibitors work hard on finding and conserving unique items for all types of collectors. It's a great way to conserve history and show our future generation items from the past.

We are excited to bring to the community a place that represents the "Key to the Past", where you can spend hours walking through history, admiring quality antique and remembering the past with each item on your way.

The center is full antiques, designer pieces vintage jewelry, collectibles of all types and the stock is changing constantly

Our newly remodeled facility will provide a great shopping experience. The facility has great lighting and state-of-the-art climate control for a comfortable shopping experience

BECOME A DEALER

Stop by and ask how to become a dealer at our Multi Dealer Center. Booth and Display cases are available for rent. Key to the Past Antique and Design Center is conveniently located off exit 51 from I-95 next to Home Depot and Auto Zone Auto Parts
