

SIT ■ STAY ■ BE HIP

What words best describe Marietta? Is it charming or quaint as in its downtown square? Is it historic as in its many Civil War and heritage sites? How about hip for its dining, shopping and theatre. Mariettans are passionate about their city and have as many words to describe it as in the population. Let us show you our beautiful town and maybe you'll come up with your own description.

It's Hip to be Square

Tour Ideas

The Art of Museum Hopping

Visit the Marietta/Cobb Museum of Art, then stroll over to the Marietta History Museum and finish at the Marietta Gone With the Wind Museum. Too much fun on the Square for just one day!
www.MariettaCobbArtMuseum.com

Take a Ride Through History

The Historic Marietta Trolley is the best way to get an overall sense of the history of Marietta. For times and prices, contact the Historic Marietta Trolley Company 770-425-1006 or visit www.MariettaTrolley.com

Meet the Ghosts of Marietta

A lantern-led walking tour of Marietta and the Marietta Square. The tours begin every Friday, Saturday, & Sunday and last approximately 90 minutes. For times and prices, contact Ghosts of Marietta at 770-425-1006 or visit www.GhostsOfMarietta.com

Get a taste of Marietta

Take a guided journey of locally owned and operated eateries with the Marietta Food Tours. Tours are every Saturday year-round and visit seven local restaurants. For more information, visit www.MariettaFoodTours.com.

Something for everyone

- Historic Marietta Trolley Company
- Ghosts of Marietta
- Marietta Food Tours
- Earl Smith Strand Theatre
- Marietta Museum of History
- Marietta Gone With the Wind Museum: Scarlett on the Square
- Marietta's New Theatre in the Square

- Root House Museum
- Marietta Fire Museum
- Marietta/Cobb Museum of Art
- Kennesaw Mountain National Battlefield Park
- Marietta National Cemetery
- Marietta Confederate Cemetery
- Six Flags White Water Park
- Self-guided walking/driving tour
- Self-guided Cannonball Trail Civil War guide

Located on I-75
18 miles NW of Atlanta

