ABOUT THE MUSEUM

The Museum of Chinese in America (MOCA) is a national home for the narratives of diverse American history. Rooted in Chinatown since 1980, MOCA provides not only permanent and rotating exhibits but also guided tours, neighborhood maps, and food recommendations!

WHAT TO EXPECT

Museum Admission

Explore the beautifully designed Museum at your own pace, with 3 exhibition spaces, a Learning Center, and beautiful facilities. MOCA's core exhibition, With a Single Step: Stories in the Making of America, presents the diverse layers of the Chinese American experience, while examining America's journey as a nation of immigrants.

Museum Highlights Tour

This tour highlights the major themes of MOCA's core exhibition, With a Single Step: Stories in the Making of America, and explores more of Presidential Medal of Freedom recipient Maya Lin's design of the museum and our unique historical content. Tour Length: approx. 45 minutes.

Chinatown Walking Tour

This historic tour helps to "demystify" the neighborhood and discover one of the most important immigrant hubs of New York City, which began as a Native American village before evolving from Five Points into the present day Chinatown. Tour Length: approx. 75 minutes.

Chinatown Food Tour

Taste the diverse food and cooking styles of Chinese cuisine which showcase the unexpectedly diverse culture of the neighborhood. This delicious tour includes 2-3 samples from famous local hotspots and "off the beaten path" locations that are sure to delight! Tour Length: approx. 90 minutes.

Shop! Browse! MOCA Shop by Pearl River

Groups enjoy 10% off the MOCA Shop, curated by iconic Pearl River, the 1st Chinese-American department store!
