More of Everything You Love in 2017!

The Oregon Cabaret Theatre has provided first-class entertainment and dining in the Rogue Valley for the last thirty years, with unforgettable productions featuring professional performers from all over the country. Located one block from the Oregon Shakespeare Festival in a beautifully remodeled historic church, the Cabaret's venue has the old school charm of the jazz era.

Whether it's the classic door-slammng comedy of Noises Off, the musical nostalgia of All Night Strut and The Drowsy Chaperone, the live action suspense of Baskerville, or the romance of Broadway classic She Loves Me, we have something just for you in Season 32. Don't miss a single show, as we've packed as much music and as many belly laughs as we could comfortably fit into a Cabaret season. Get your favorite table for all of these shows by signing up for a season subscription today!
