

9 Great Selfie Locations in Downtown Ann Arbor

Welcome to Ann Arbor, also known as “Tree Town” and home to the University of Michigan. Have fun exploring the downtown area and share with us your photos on Facebook, Twitter, and Instagram using #DestinationAnnArbor.

University of Michigan Law Quad

The Law Quad's striking Gothic-style architecture makes it one of the University of Michigan's most awe-inspiring locations.

Location: Corner of South University and State St.

Michigan Stadium “The Big House”

Grab a shot in front of the iconic gates or climb to the top of the William and Main parking structure for a great skyline photo.

Location: Gate 4, corner of Main and Stadium.

Nickels Arcade

One of the only urban shopping malls in the country that has a glass ceiling. Enjoy a walk through history while shopping.

Location: Entrances on State St. and Maynard St.

For more information about things to do in Ann Arbor, visit:
DestinationAnnArbor.org

DESTINATION
ANN ARBOR

Graffiti Alley

Artists and performers alike gather in Graffiti Alley. The art changes daily with bits of its original paint peeking through.

Location: East Liberty and Maynard.

The Diag

One of the busiest sites on U-M campus, the Diag is home to many events, concerts, fundraisers, demonstrations, and picnics.

Location: Central U-M campus.

Michigan Wings Mural

Pose with a pair of giant wings containing Ann Arbor and U-M landmarks in this artistic, interactive mural.

Location: Corner of East William and Maynard at Tower Plaza.

Singing in the Rain Mural

Officially named Laughing at Clouds, this mural by David Zinn lets you hang from the lamp post with Gene Kelly for a great picture.

Location: West side of S. Fifth Ave, facing Liberty St.

Michigan Theater

This beautifully restored historic theater now hosts independent movies, film festivals, stage productions and musical concerts.

Location: Liberty St., just west of State St.

Kerrytown Market and Shops

Just a few blocks from the heart of downtown, Kerrytown Market & Shops is the most unique collection of shops in the area.

Location: Corner of Kingsley and Fifth Ave.

