Bottom photo: A list of victims' names and the dates of their murder hangs next to an overhead projector during the trial of serial killer Jeffrey Dahmer. Dahmer stood trial for murdering and dismembering several men and was sentenced to 15 consecutive life terms in prison.

This list includes two victims that Dahmer met in Chicago. One victim met Dahmer at Carol's Speakeasy Lounge in Chicago. Carol's is now a gated parking lot.

ABOUT KAREN

Bottom photos: Karen Conti helped represent Gacy during his final death row appeals in the early 1990s before his execution in 1994.

She was the only female attorney on Gacy's defense team during his final legal challenges. Conti took the case partly because of her strong opposition to the death penalty, not because she believed Gacy was innocent.
