Historic Train Station

Our fully restored 1903 Lenox Train Station is a historic museum recognized on the National Register of Historic Places. We offer a unique glimpse into railroad history and showcase a large collection of railroad artifacts and exhibits including diesel locomotives, cabooses, and passenger cars. Visitors can relive rail history on our guided walking tour around the yard and "block house" or for a small donation can take a quick locomotive cab ride on our "Jitney" yard service train. Admission to the Museum is free but donations for operations and ongoing repairs are requested and always appreciated! The Museum and the Hoosac Valley Train Service are separate operations but are both owned and operated by Berkshire Scenic Railway Museum, Inc. We are a non-profit, volunteer-run organization since 1984.
