Come Hungry. Eat Hearty. Go Home Happy.

If you're craving home cooking and farm-fresh goodness, you're in the right place. Breathe deep and savor the aroma of chicken corn soup, pork and sauerkraut, roast turkey with gravy and real mashed potatoes, or our famous ham balls with pineapple sauce. Whether you feast from our all-you-can-eat smorgasbord, sample the offerings on our sumptuous soup-and-salad bar, select something from our varied menu or pick up a convenient meal "to go" from our retail case, you're sure to be satisfied.

We make most of what we serve from scratch - soups, salad dressings, macaroni salad and coleslaw - right down to the tartar sauce, cocktail sauce and applesauce. We use only the freshest ingredients. In season, fruits and vegetables come from local Amish and Mennonite farms, and we use meat and poultry from Lancaster County producers. Try the mouthwatering burgers made from Angus beef raised on John Smucker's farm. The milk we serve with our baked oatmeal and apple dumplings comes straight from Oasis, a co-op of local farmers.

Some of our most popular traditional Pennsylvania Dutch recipes date back to Grandma Smucker. National Geographic introduced her to the world in 1938, and the Smucker family still approves every recipe we use today.
