

WELCOME TO YOUR CITY

DISCOVER ALL THAT
RED BANK HAS TO OFFER:

- UNIQUE SHOPS
- ART GALLERIES
- LOUNGES
- RIVERFRONT ACTIVITIES
- ANTIQUES
- EATERIES
- FARMERS MARKET
- HISTORIC LANDMARKS
- HOTELS
- NIGHTLIFE
- LIVE THEATER
- JEWELERS
- CONCERTS
- ART HOUSE CINEMA

PARKING INFORMATION

Parking available in municipal lots and on-street where indicated.

Paid Public Parking:

Paid parking is in effect Monday – Saturday from 9:00am – 6:00pm
Pay at pay stations or meters

Free parking after 6:00pm

Monday – Saturday and all day Sunday

PARKING RATES

On-street parking rates: $1.50/hour
Municipal lot rates: $1.00/hour
Valet Parking: $700/car - cash only (daily, 5:00pm - Midnight)

redbank
RiverCenter
732.842.4244

redbank
visitorscenter
732.741.9211

www.RedBank.org

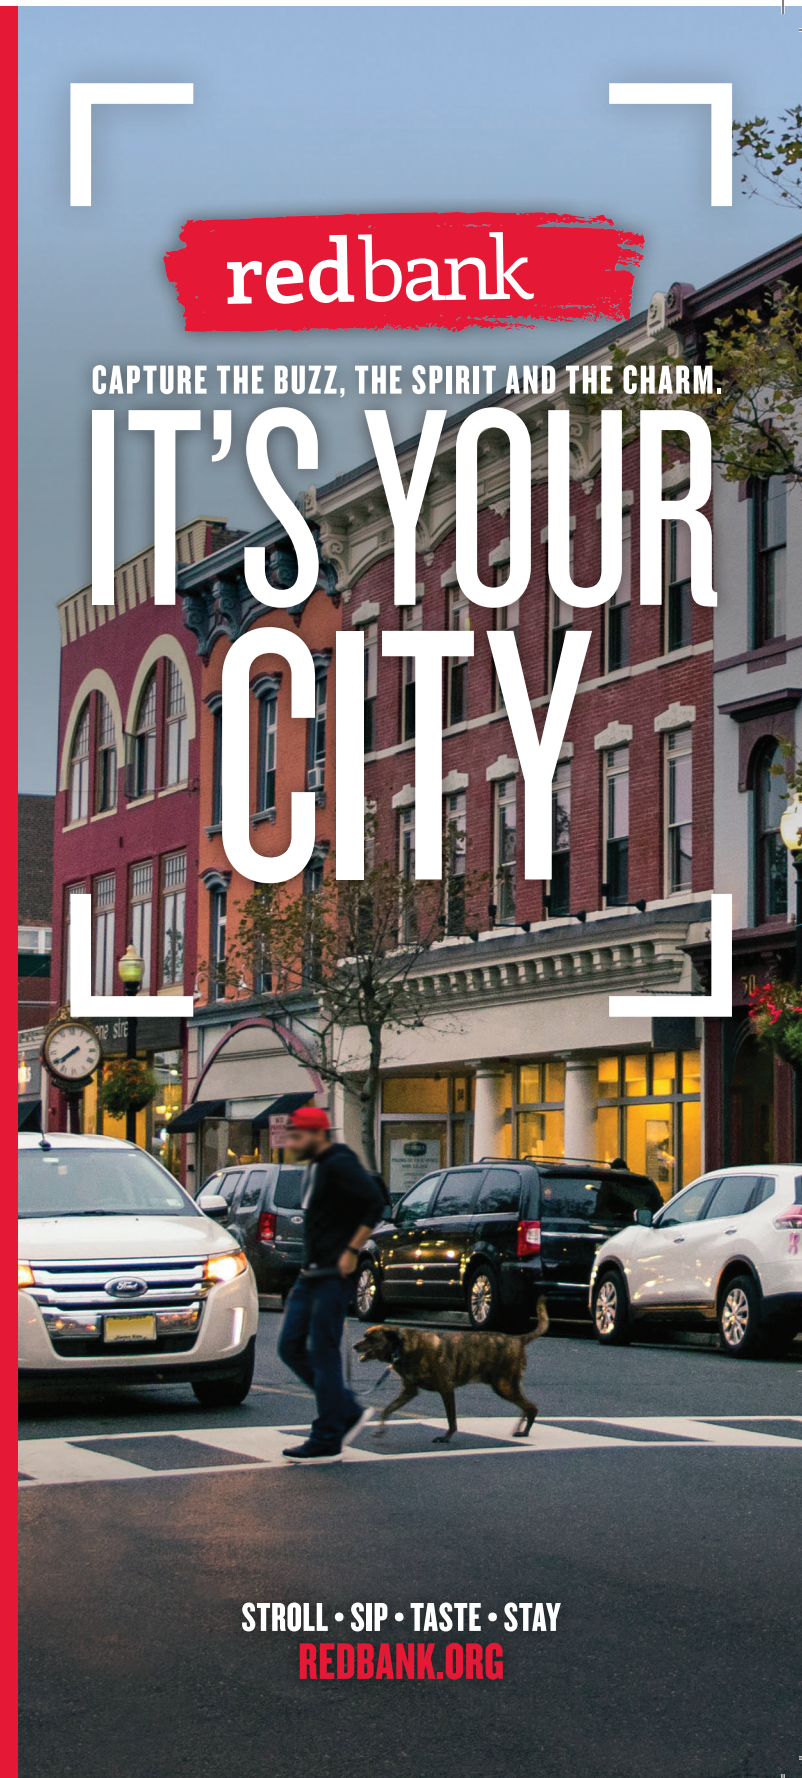

RED BANK, NEW JERSEY
Garden State Parkway Exit 109
Accessible by NJ Transit
North Jersey Coast Rail Line and Academy Bus Line.

redbank

CAPTURE THE BUZZ, THE SPIRIT AND THE CHARM.

IT'S YOUR CITY

STROLL • SIP • TASTE • STAY
REDBANK.ORG

RED BANK, IT'S YOUR...

With its stunning views of the Navesink River, charming historic buildings and Victorian streetscapes, dining for all palates, theater, music, art, boutique shopping, and seasonal celebrations and festivals, Red Bank comes alive each day and offers visitors an experience that is as unique as our town itself. Here you'll find just the right balance between atmosphere, amenities, and old-fashioned hospitality.

Frequently called the SoHo of New Jersey, we have some of the most sought-after and diverse retail, entertainment and dining options on the east coast. It is no wonder that Smithsonian Magazine named Red Bank one of the best small towns in America. We invite you to make Red Bank Your City and discover the best we have to offer!

...THEATER

The Count Basie Theatre, Two River Theater and Bow-Tie Cinema Movie House bring stage and screen to life in Red Bank. Named for Red Bank's favorite native son, William "Count" Basie, the Basie Theatre has served the community with diverse unparalleled entertainment from classical, pop and rock and roll, to comedy, movies and dance. If you're looking for staged productions, the equity playhouse Two River Theater can't be beat. From Shakespeare to contemporary playwrights, Two River develops and produces great American theater by today's most gifted and adventurous artists. And if movies are your preference, Bow Tie Cinemas is an arts movie house specializing in independent films. The family-owned company is dedicated to "bringing style and elegance back to the movie going experience".

...GALLERY

Whether it's the new Detour Gallery, with its impressive murals and iconic sculpture on the exterior, or a tried and true favorite like Beacon Fine Arts, Chetkin Gallery, the Art Alliance and more, art lovers won't be at a loss for things to do in Red Bank. Spend the day perusing our renowned galleries and you may just find a new favorite painting or sculpture. Discover hidden galleries inside Frame to Please, Red Bank Frameworks and other Red Bank favorites. And art isn't confined to the indoors in Red Bank. Stroll our streets and see if you can find a mural or painting peeking out at you from the side of a building.

...PLAYGROUND

Your adventure begins the moment you step onto our sidewalks. Live music fills our lounges and nightclubs. You can play the night away with a vintage video game at Yestercades or with a mystery solving experience at Trap Door Escape Room. Tap into your creative side at Pinot's Palette, A Time to Kiln, or Paint A Tee. Take a stroll along the scenic Navesink River. Strap on your ice skates at the Red Bank Ice Armory. Or enjoy spectacular signature events like the Galleria Farmer's Market, Indie Street Film Festival, the Red Bank Guinness Oyster Festival, the International Beer Wine & Food Fest or the Holiday Town Lighting.

...NIGHT OUT

Our restaurants and eateries tickle the taste buds with both savory and sweet cuisines. From a quick bite, to a business lunch, to an exquisitely prepared artisan meal, you'll find it here. International cuisines from Europe, Asia and the Americas will satisfy your hunger and expand your horizons. Coffee houses, dessert shops, delis and the most superb casual and fine dining options make Red Bank a true dining mecca that can't possibly be conquered in just one trip.

...BOUTIQUE

Whether looking for the latest fashion, the finest jewelry or the perfect piece of furniture for your home, you'll discover an array of boutiques and shops to surprise and delight you. You will easily find the earrings your girlfriend can't, the dress to make a wedding spectacular, the perfect comestible for your dinner party and countless other treasures that make Red Bank a true destination for the finders of the unique.

...ANTIQUÉ SHOP

Red Bank's famed antique district beckons to those who love all things with a patina of time. If you're looking for luxury antiques, Stillwell House Fine Art & Antiques or Ambiance Antiques may be the place for you. If you prefer an antique mall setting, be sure to visit Riverbank Antiques, Monmouth Street Emporium or the three buildings of the Red Bank Antique Center.

...GETAWAY

Spend the night at one of two historic boutique hotels. Stunning views, the best service, fine dining and the ultimate luxury await you at the traditional Molly Pitcher Inn or more contemporary Oyster Point Hotel. Molly Pitcher Inn is rich in history with guest rooms, services and a state of the art marina to satisfy even the most discriminating taste. Tucked away on the Navesink River, the Oyster Point Hotel features beautifully appointed guest rooms, meeting rooms and, most notably, panoramic water views.