Mashantucket Pequot
Tribal Nation

THE MASHANTUCKET PEQUOTS

The Mashantucket (Western) Pequot Tribal Nation is a federally recognized Indian tribe located at one of America's oldest reservations, Mashantucket, in Southeastern Connecticut. As the owners and operators of one of the largest resort destinations in North America, Foxwoods Resort Casino, the Mashantucket Pequots own a variety of enterprises to enhance their business objectives, including the world-class, Lake of Isles golf course, the renowned Spa at Norwich Inn, and America's first tribally owned and managed commercial health care plan and pharmaceutical delivery system, Pequot Health Care. As one of Connecticut's highest revenue contributors and largest employers, the Mashantucket Pequots have provided more than $4 billion in slot revenue to the state through a first-of-its-kind agreement, established in 1993. Since then, the Tribe has contributed hundreds of millions in donations and sponsorships to benefit communities and families in need, locally and throughout the United States.
