SEE DIFFERENTLY

Bringing together art, nature, history, and adventure, the Gateway Arch is an inspiration as well as a destination. Founded by the National Park Service in 1935, Gateway Arch National Park stretches from the Old Courthouse to the steps overlooking the Mighty Mississippi. In between, the Gateway Arch rises 630 feet high, a bold monument to the pioneering spirit. Spend a few hours or make it a day. The Gateway Arch will change your perspective, inside and out.

Whether it's your first visit or your fiftieth, the Gateway Arch never fails to inspire. Come stroll the lush grounds in search of the perfect view. As much art as it is engineering, the Gateway Arch exerts a pull that's undeniable.

EXPERIENCE
GUIDE

Tram Ride to the Top

Experience a monument that moves you, from above and below. Before you board, enjoy the interactive, new tour featuring 60s-inspired animation and Gateway Arch trivia. Then, be transported 630 feet to the top of America's tallest man-made monument for exhilarating views of St. Louis, the Mississippi River, and up to 30 miles beyond.

Timed tickets required. Allow 45–60 minutes to enjoy the full experience. Availability is limited. Reserve your tickets before your visit at gatewayarch.com.

It's the
experience,
above all.

► Monument to the Dream Movie

The story of the Gateway Arch is as incredible as the views. In this award-winning, 1967 documentary, you'll learn about the inspiration behind architect Eero Saarinen's timeless design and the determination of the men who brought it to life.

Showing in the Tucker Theater, located under the Gateway Arch. Timed tickets required. Summer: every hour, 9am–9pm. Winter: every hour, 10am–5pm.

► Shopping

Find the perfect memento of your visit at our unique gift shops located under the Gateway Arch, in the Old Courthouse, and on the riverboat dock.

Seasonal hours apply.

► Helicopter Tours

Experience the Gateway Arch from a unique perspective as you soar high above the Mississippi River. The tour accommodates parties of two or three. Call (314) 496-4494 for details.

Tours run March through November, 11am to sunset, weather permitting.

► Dining

At the Arch View Café on the riverboat dock, guests can dine on cooked-to-order burgers, snacks, and more. Boxed lunches are available for groups to enjoy on the dock, on a one-hour riverfront cruise, or take on their next adventure. Please give one-week notice for to-go orders. Call (877) 982-1410.*

In the visitor center, grab a quick bite at the Arch Café located beneath the Gateway Arch.

**Arch View Café open April through October. Hours vary. Box lunches available March through November with one-week advance notice.*

► National Park Service Programs

Old Courthouse

Stand in the footsteps of American heroes at this beautifully restored federal courthouse. The site of several pivotal cases, the Old Courthouse is where the enslaved Dred and Harriet Scott sued for their freedom and Virginia Minor fought for women's right to vote. Rich with history, the building also features exhibits showcasing these infamous trials and other park themes.

Admission is free.

Riverboats at the Gateway Arch

Enjoy some of the best views of the Gateway Arch and St. Louis' working riverfront—a riverboat cruise makes a unique addition to your Gateway Arch experience. Choose from a variety of riverboat cruises, including daily one-hour riverfront cruises, as well as dinner cruises, specialty trips, and private events.

Cruises run March through November, rain or shine. Parking is available for a cash fee on the levee near the dock. Parking availability and cruise schedules may change due to weather or river conditions.

NEW

The Museum at the Gateway Arch

Gain fresh perspective on the people and events that shaped our collective story. Explore 200 years of America's history, as you move through six interactive galleries telling the stories of Colonial St. Louis, Jefferson's Vision, Manifest Destiny, The Riverfront Era, New Frontiers, and Building the Gateway Arch.

Admission is free.
