HERE'S WHAT'S HOT IN BOSTON, MA...

Looking for ideas for places to explore, attractions to see and activities to do?

About The Area

Built on the revolutionary ideas of America's founding fathers (Boston counts John Adams and Benjamin Franklin as its own), this historic city continues to revolutionize pathways in arts, medicine, education and politics.

The presence of educational powerhouses like MIT and Harvard hints toward the major influence higher education has on the city. A day can easily be spent admiring the scientific achievements of MIT in the university's interactive museum, or mingling with students within the ivy-covered walls of Harvard Yard.

What You Should Know...

- Open: Seasonally (April-October)
- Hours: 9:00am - 6:00pm, Daily
- Cost: Under $50
- Payment: Cash, Mastercard, American Express, Discover
- Discounts: Seniors, Students, Groups
- Access: Public Transportation, Wheelchair, Service Animals
- Parking: Paid Onsite, Street, Bicycle

Why You Should Go...

Boston Duck Tours take you on a tour of Boston unlike any other one! See the exciting city of Boston by land, and by water, all while riding in the same vehicle. The adventure begins as you step onto the "DUCK," a World War II style amphibious landing vehicle where you are greeted by a conDUCKtor who narrates the tour. You will cruise by places that make Boston famous for its freedom, such as golden dome State House. From there, you will continue past Bunker Hill and the TD Banknorth Garden, Boston Common and Copley square to the Big Dig, Government Center to fashionable Newbury Street, Quincy Market, and the Prudential Center, among many other attractions.

As for your cruise through the streets and waterways of Boston, you will receive small tidbits and little known facts about this unique and wonderful city.
