THINGS TO SEE IN 2015

Loads of Fun at the New Wee Bairns Tent

At this year's Games, look for the new area just for kids aged 4 to 12 with lots of fun things to do while learning about our Scottish heritage. The Wee Bairns Tent can be found southeast of the Metcalfe Centre and will be open Friday from 1-4pm and Saturday from 10-12 and 1-4. Parental supervision is required.

Things to do include:

- Scottish puppets and music
- Amazing show with live falcons
- Petting zoo
- Storytellers
- Learn Scottish dances or play the fiddle and pipes
- Photo Op with Nessie the dragon

Other events for young people at the Games include the Junior Heavyweight events on Saturday where participants compete in the mini-caber toss, the hammer and the sheaf. Track and Field events take place on Saturday also. Preregistration is encouraged. See the Games website, Things for Kids, for full info.

Record-setting Teams in Tug of War

This ninth year will feature a record ten Highland Militia units competing for the coveted Highlanders Tug-o-War Challenge Cup and a chance for a prize purse for the charity of their choice.

- The Cameron Highlanders of Ottawa - Ottawa, Ontario
- The Stormont, Dundas & Glengarry Highlanders - Cornwall, Ontario
- The Black Watch (Royal Highland Regiment of Canada) - Montreal, Quebec
- The Toronto Scottish Regiment - Toronto, Ontario
- The 48th Highlanders of Canada - Toronto, Ontario
- The Lake Superior Scottish Regiment - Thunder Bay, Ontario
- The Royal Highland Fusiliers of Canada - Cambridge and Kitchener, Ontario
- The Lorne Scots - Brampton, Halton, and Peel, Ontario
- The Essex & Kent Scottish Regiment - Windsor, Ontario
- The Argyll & Sutherland Highlanders of Canada - Hamilton, Ontario

Be sure to root for your favourite home-town heroes and show your support for our Armed Forces!
