Historic Dinners

Each year, Living History Farms invites guests for dinner at one of the museum's many historic kitchens. Step back in time for a fun, unique, and memorable evening at a Historic Dinner!

1900 FARM DINNERS: OCTOBER-MARCH

The 1900 Farm staff welcomes guests with a horse-drawn wagon ride to the farm house, where they cozy up to the wood-burning stove in the dining room and pass heaping dishes of meat and potatoes around the table.

1875 DAHL HISTORIC DINNERS AT TANGEN: OCT-FEB

The Dahl Historic Dinners at Tangen in the 1875 town of Walnut Hill are special occasion meals shared family style in the dining room, followed by fun and frivolous Victorian games in the parlor afterwards.

FLYNN MANSION DINNERS: MARCH

At Flynn Mansion Dinners, historical interpreters offer guests the opportunity to experience the high style a la Russe dining of the late 19th century. Enjoy the high Victorian dining room atmosphere and chat with other guests as serving staff present multiple courses of food, one by one! The dining room host will offer tips for navigating the many forks and spoons laid out at each place setting, while the kitchen staff share their expertise about which recipes and ingredients were part of every Victorian celebration meal.

FLYNN VICTORIAN TEA: DECEMBER, APRIL

The Flynn Mansion welcomes ladies and gentlemen of all ages for a Victorian tea service. Relax and chat with friends and family in our 1870 Victorian home, decorated for either the winter or spring holiday season. Guests are seated at tea tables for three courses of treats featuring tea sandwiches, sweet breads, then cakes and cookies, along with steaming cups of tea. After eating, guests may stroll through the elegantly appointed rooms.
