A RESTAURANT.

BECAUSE IT IS.

An Old Market landmark since 1996,
Upstream is Omaha's original brew pub.
And while being first doesn't make us best,
our beer, food and staff certainly do.

UPSTREAMBREWING.COM

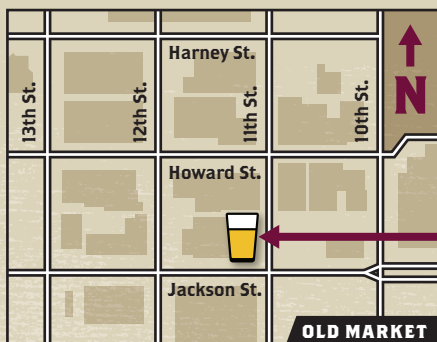

EVEN THINGS PREPARED MEDIUM RARE ARE REALLY, REALLY WELL DONE.

We see no point in pairing great beer with mediocre food. So we don't. Instead, we offer genuine Omaha Steaks,[®] jet-setting fresh seafood and as much locally-sourced fare as we can find.

It would be wrong to say the freshest beer is automatically the best beer. But the best beer almost always tastes its best when it is at the peak of freshness. And it's hard to get any fresher than beer brewed thirty feet away from your table. And it's doubly hard to get any better than when that table is here at Upstream. But we suspect you already knew that.
