CONTROL

IS

WATCHING

BY YOUR MISSION

Your mission, should you choose to accept it, is to infiltrate SafeHouse. Of course, you must first locate this spy hideaway in order to gain access. Some claim to have discovered it just a block away from Michigan Ave., marked by only a red door and a nameplate that reads "International Exports, Ltd."

Oh, and one more thing. You'll need the password to gain entry. Alternatively, you can prove you're a friendly agent by passing a spy clearance test.

INCREDIBLE EDIBLES

OUR MISSION: FEEDING HUNGRY SPIES

Our culinary agents conspire to bring you delicious scratch-made food, served under cover with high quality ingredients. A few of our agent's favorites:

Fried C4 Cheese Curds
Licensed to Kill Cheese Macaroni
Prime Rib Timed Drop Sandwich
Mission Impossible Burger
Station Chief's Salmon

CRAFTY COCKTAILS

Rendezvous at the Interpol bar to be served by CONTROL's highly trained Agents. A tip: the signature Spy's Demise and Great Spytini (preferred by 007) have their own souvenir glass.
