

Lewis County ATV Trail System

Lewis Counties Tug Hill region offers an extensive collection of wilderness trails for the ATV enthusiast. Individuals and families will find the exploration and casual riding to be a great way to see the area's natural beauty. Wet muddy springs, warm breezy summers and crisp, fresh autumns make Lewis County a great place to ride! Hundreds of miles of trails and off-season roads offer a different terrain for every preference. Many businesses, including dining and lodging options are located along the trails that cater to the ATV enthusiast. The Tug Hill Adirondack ATV Association and Lewis County Recreation, Forestry and Parks both play a very important role in the trail system care, maintenance, safety and other trail needs.

Lewis County has a trail permit program where permits are required to ride reforestation land trails, some private land owner trails and connector roads. Trial permits can be purchased at local businesses or the Lewis County Chamber of Commerce. Trial permit discounts are provided for members of the Tug Hill Adirondack ATV Association. Join our organization at any of the local businesses listed below.

“Working to make a responsible and safe trail system”

About Us

Formally known as the Lewis County ATV Association, and serving just Lewis County, the continued growth and popularity of ATVing in the Tug Hill / Adirondacks region has enabled us to expand and represent clubs from different counties and individuals and families in many states.

Now known as the

"Tug Hill Adirondack ATV Association"

we hope this will better help represent the vast area we now serve.

Our organization is a not-for-profit that has been incorporated since 1999. We promote and hold classes in ATV safety with the ATV Safety Institute, work with Lewis County Recreation, Forestry and Parks in creating and maintaining trails, work with and help clubs, offer discounts on trail permits to individuals & families who belong to our organization, work with state, county, town, & village officials, land owners, & businesses. We also have planned events through out the summer and so much more!

Our membership is just $10.00 for an individual or family membership. With that you'll receive membership cards, current year decal(s), a discounted price on your Lewis County trail permit and a $10.00 gift card from Rocky Mountain ATV for atv gear & apparel.

We look forward to meeting new members and clubs as we move forward to creating a safe and enjoyable atv riding experience for all so why not join today!!!

Visit our website for more information, applications and much more at www.tughilladironacksatv.com.
