

Pioneer Trails Adventures

PIONEER TRAILS
ADVENTURES
INDEPENDENCE, MISSOURI

MORE THAN JUST A RIDE!

Visit Independence, Missouri where three trails began, two Civil War battles were fought and one President began his march to The White House. For over 20 years folks have seen Independence just as a pioneer would - by mule drawn covered wagon! Our pioneer adventures are unique and compliment other historical Independence sites. However limited your time or budget, we have a tour for you! Groups of 1-65.

PIONEER TRAILS OPERATES

all year round, weather permitting
(December – March by reservation only)
Hours: 9-4 pm Monday – Saturday, after 5pm
by reservation only, minimum $60.

Pioneer Trails Adventures

Square Tour

15 to 20 min: $10 Adult/$7 Children 2-12

This tour covers the 1859 Jail and Marshal Home, see the oldest courthouse still standing West of the Mississippi, see where the pioneers lined up to head west and had prayer services. See where Harry S. Truman had his first job, and learn how "Wild" got into Bill Hickok's name.

City Limits Tour

45 min: $25 Adult/$7 Children 2-12

This tour covers the above plus takes you all the way to the city limits of 1845, Bess Truman's birth home, ride on the actual Oregon Trail through wagon swales. Learn how the border wars began between Kansas and Missouri, the Marshal Plan, order #11, discover how a painting destroyed a mighty general, how Frank James ended up in the 1859 Jail and why the cell was never locked.

Full City Tour

90 minutes: $35 Adult/$7 Children 2-12

This tour (2.8 miles), covers all of the above plus both Civil War battlefields, see homes with bullet holes still in them. It includes a look at Cannon Hill where Cole Younger uniquely spied on the Union troops, the Truman Home and their love story.

Chuck Wagon Dinner Tour

or Lunch for groups of 15 or more:

$48 Adult/$20 Children 2-12

With reservations, we offer a 45 minute tour and chuck wagon dinner beside an open campfire (weather permitting) with world famous Kansas City BBQ! Contact us for your next tour group, field trip, reunion or social event. Live entertainment featuring authentic period music is also available upon request.
