POCAHONTAS BY JOSEPH MOZIER

"It is a wonder of architecture... Its bright walks sparkle in the sun, towers and spires blend gracefully with its slated roof, and fairy rays of gilt kindle its crest with glory."

The New York Sun, October 2, 1869

financier and railroad baron LeGrand Lockwood between 1864 and 1868, the Mansion, with its unparalleled Gilded Age interiors and furniture, illustrates magnificently the beauty and splendor of the Victorian Era.

A National Historic Landmark since 1971, the Lockwood-Mathews Mansion Museum is regarded as one of the earliest and most significant Second Empire Style country houses in the United States. Built by renowned
