

WEST DES MOINES
HISTORICAL SOCIETY
MUSEUM AT

JORDAN HOUSE

History is everyone's story.

2001 FULLER ROAD
WEST DES MOINES, IA

BE PART OF HISTORY.

Built by local pioneer James Jordan and known as the oldest house in West Des Moines, the Jordan House is also the only Central Iowa stop on the Underground Railroad open to the public. Hear daring stories of abolitionists and pioneers, view original Victorian elegance and learn little known facts about local history.

2001 FULLER RD
WDM IA
WDMHS.ORG
515.225.1286

GUIDED TOURS

WINTER HOURS SEPTEMBER - MAY

Friday & Sunday | 11AM & 1PM | Closed January

SUMMER HOURS JUNE - AUGUST

Friday, Saturday & Sunday | 11AM & 1PM

ADMISSION

Adults $5.00 | Youth $3.00

Schedule subject to change.

Please visit our Facebook page or website for updates.

LET'S MAKE HISTORY TOGETHER.

The West Des Moines Historical Society believes history is everyone's story and invites you to be a part of it. For more information about the society and our upcoming events, find us on Facebook at WDM Historical Society.

