

Historic Deerfield®

*Spend a day in old
New England*

Visit Historic Deerfield, an authentic 18th-century New England village in the Connecticut River Valley of Massachusetts. Explore our historic houses and world-famous collection of early American decorative arts, and learn the stories of the people who lived here.

www.historic-deerfield.org

Historic Deerfield®

Tour beautifully restored museum houses with period architecture and furnishings.

See Yankee ingenuity at work in demonstrations of colonial-era trades.

Explore our world-famous collection of early American furniture, ceramics, textiles, metalwork, and crafts.

Current Exhibitions

Celebrating the Fiber Arts: The Helen Geier Flynt Textile Gallery

Discover one of the finest collections of early American textiles ever assembled. Permanent with changing elements.

Into the Woods: Crafting Early American Furniture

Learn about antique furniture from the inside out with a dazzling array of masterworks.

Shopping: The Museum Gift Shop & Bookstore offers a wide selection of unique gifts and books. (413) 775-7170

Champney's Restaurant & Tavern at the Deerfield Inn serves lunch and dinner. (413) 774-5587 champneysrestaurant.com

Directions: Historic Deerfield is located just 6 miles off I-91 (exit 24 North or exit 25 South) in Massachusetts.

Historic Deerfield®

Opening Doorways To The Past.™

80 Old Main Street, Deerfield, MA 01342

Information (including hours and directions) (413) 775-7214

www.historic-deerfield.org

