Visitor experiences for all ages to enjoy.

Loggerhead Marinelife Center is a non-profit organization that has been offering free admission to visitors for the past 30+ years. The vision of our founder, Eleanor Fletcher, lives on to this day with our continued mission; To promote conservation of ocean ecosystems through education, research and rehabilitation, with a special focus on threatened and endangered sea turtles.

Things to do at Loggerhead Marinelife Center:

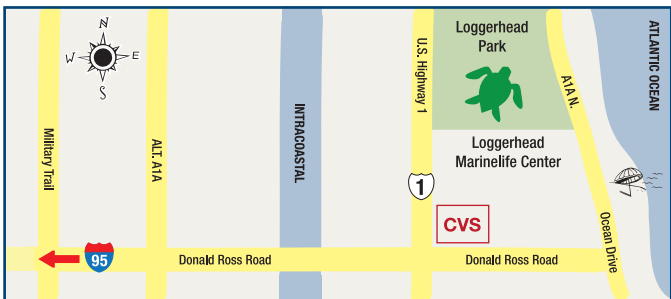

- Interactive exhibit hall with hands-on displays
- Saltwater aquariums with marine life and weekly feedings
- Life-size replica prehistoric Archelon from millions of years ago
- Free weekly public programs, including kid’s story time
- Guided tours available with our education staff
- Gift store complete with exquisite and unique gifts

Meet our captivating sea turtle patients.

All of the sea turtles at LMC are sick or injured. You can get an up close view of these magical creatures in the outdoor hospital recovery tanks. Chances are you will see hospital staff and volunteers administering treatments to our sea turtle patients during your visit with us.

Hours: Monday - Sunday: 10:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m.

Directions: Located on U.S. Highway 1 in Loggerhead Park, 1/4 mile north of Donald Ross Road (Exit 83, I-95) on the east side.
