From the moment rock and roll hit the airwaves, it has played a crucial role in politics and social movements around the world. This one-of-a-kind exhibit, Louder Than Words: Rock, Power & Politics, explores the power of rock to change attitudes about patriotism, peace, equality and freedom.

Using video, multimedia, photographs, periodicals and artifacts, Louder Than Words showcases the intersection between rock and politics. See original handwritten lyrics, stage costumes, instruments and more from the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame. Explore how artists exercise their First Amendment rights, challenge assumptions and beliefs, stimulate thought and effect change.

Curators from the Rock & Roll Hall of Fame and the Newseum worked with veteran music journalist, author and television producer Bill Flanagan (VH1 Storytellers, CMT Crossroads, CBS News Sunday Morning) to create this unique exhibition.
