ABOUT OUR EXHIBITIONS

BECOMING JANE: THE EVOLUTION OF DR. JANE GOODALL

Open November 22, 2019—Summer 2020

In this hands-on, transportive, and multimedia exhibition celebrating Jane Goodall's extraordinary life and work, you will venture on a 3D exploration of Tanzania's Gombe Stream National Park, see a life-size hologram of Jane, enter a replica of her research tent, and learn about her current role as a leader in community-centered conservation and youth empowerment.

WOMEN: A CENTURY OF CHANGE

Open October 22, 2019—Spring 2020

This powerful photography exhibition highlights women from around the globe through iconic images selected from our 130-year-old Image Collection as well as portraits of and personal stories, portraits, and revelatory commentary from a wide range of female luminaries.

NATIONAL GEOGRAPHIC: EXPLORATION STARTS HERE

Permanent Exhibition

Where and when did exploration get its start at National Geographic? Find out in our permanent exhibition showcasing the greatest hits from our long and storied history of discovery. Examine artifacts like the camera Robert Peary used at the North Pole and pots recovered from a shipwreck by Jacques-Yves Cousteau, learn the untold story behind the discovery of Machu Picchu, and much more.

HOW TO GET HERE

Just a few blocks from the White House!

The National Geographic Museum is located at the corner of 17th & M Streets NW. Take the Metro to Farragut North (Red Line) or Farragut West (Blue, Orange, and Silver Lines).
