COME EXPLORE CONNECTICUT'S LARGEST HISTORIC DISTRICT— OLD WETHERSFIELD

Attraction Highlights

- Gardens and Farm Stands: Two of the nation's oldest seed companies, farms, farmers' markets and farm stands carry on Wethersfield's agricultural tradition, offering native-grown fruits and vegetables, and a wide variety of flowers, shrubs, seeds, garden supplies and gifts.
- Shops: From artwork and fine gifts, to custom-designed jewelry and hand-made crafts, you'll find these – and other unique treasures – at a variety of small shops along Main Street.
- Dining: Whether it's brunch at a sidewalk café, ice cream on a hot summer afternoon, cocktails overlooking the Connecticut River or dining at a 200-year-old inn, Wethersfield has choices to please all tastes.
- Historic Attractions: Wethersfield Museum, Webb-Deane-Stevens Museum, Ancient Burying Ground, Cove Warehouse and House Museums tell the story of Wethersfield's rich past.
- Tours: Many partnering organizations offer a variety of tours designed to share local history while exploring historic sites, buildings and homes.

Featured Events

- Cornfest: Wethersfield's Fall Festival in September, on the historic Broad Street Green, features food, entertainment, crafts, business expo, child friendly activities, and much more.
- Scarecrows Along Main Street: Stroll along Main Street in October and see a unique display of scarecrows of all shapes, sizes and descriptions.
- Harvest Festival: Come and enjoy the Heirloom Market at Comstock Ferre Harvest Festival in October featuring music, entertainment, lectures, artisans, gifts and food vendors.
- Old Wethersfield Arts and Craft Fair: Enjoy over 100 artisans and crafters showing a variety of unique handmade items along with food, refreshments and entertainment at Cove Park.
- Cove Side Carnival: In October, enjoy the rides, food, games, entertainment and beer garden at Cove Park.
- Holidays On Main: Celebrate the Holiday Season on Main Street in December with entertainment, food, horse and wagon rides, holiday tree lighting ceremony and a visit from Santa.
