

"Dating back to 1740, the Revere Tavern catered to the more prosperous class of travelers. Fine liquors and fine foods were served in generous portions to satisfy the hearty appetites generated by a long day in a rocking, jolting stagecoach.

Almost a century later, in 1841, it was purchased by James Buchanan, 15th president of the United States, and became a parsonage for his brother the Reverend Edward Buchanan and his wife Eliza Foster Buchanan. Eliza was the sister of Stephen Foster, whose immortal songs such as "My Olde Kentucky Home", "Way Down Upon The Swanee River" and "Oh, Susanna" will always be a part of America. Eliza, a talented musician in her own right, played here, on the banks of the Pequea, many of the 200 classic American songs written by Stephen.

Through the generations, The Revere Tavern has preserved a tradition of quality in abundance. We sincerely hope today's guests find dining in the romantic glow of history a delightful contrast to the ordinary."
