Pulitzer Prize Photographs

With the click of a button, photographers record the defining moments of our world and our time. The ugliness of war. The pain of poverty. The ecstasy of victory. The triumph of redemption. Pulitzer Prize Photographs features the most comprehensive collection of Pulitzer Prize-winning photographs ever assembled. From iconic images like Joe Rosenthal's 1945 photo of the American flag raising at Iwo Jima (shown above), to past and present moments of triumph and tragedy, these unforgettable photographs serve as the world's eyes to history as it happened.

This exhibit includes powerful photography and storytelling, both in print and digital formats, plus an original Newseum film. Immersive interactive kiosks allow visitors to access hundreds of interviews with Pulitzer Prize winning photographers, see their portfolios and hear the stories behind the photos.

Pulitzer Prize Photographs was developed by the Newseum. The Newseum works to increase public understanding of the importance of a free press and the five freedoms of the First Amendment. Newseum.org
