

SAILING AND SCIENCE CAMP

In collaboration with Providence Community Boating Center & Edgewood Sailing School

Providence Community Boating Center

Ages 12 – 16 • August 17 – August 21 • Price: $300

Explore the world of sailing and marine science on Narragansett Bay! Campers split their days between sailboats and our research vessel, experiencing sailing, swimming, and snorkeling in addition to measuring water quality and collecting live critters for our onboard research tanks!

Edgewood Sailing School

Ages 7 - 13 • Dates and prices at edgewoodsailing.org

At Edgewood Sailing School, campers learn about sailboats and sail with instructors in the morning, before taking a boat ride to Save The Bay for a fun-filled afternoon of activities.

Campers will foster a love of Narragansett Bay through exploration, by playing the role of marine scientists, and by learning about the creatures of the Bay!

... HEAR FROM BAYCAMP PARENTS ...

“My kids really enjoyed themselves. They came home excited to tell me what they discovered—and had a new tidbit of information—every day.”

“We have attended many other camps in the area and can truly say this experience was the best yet.”

BAYCAMP CANCELLATION POLICY

Because Save The Bay's BayCamps are so popular, the entire cost of the program is required to confirm your reservation. Cancellations with at least four weeks notice will receive a full refund. Cancellations with fewer than four weeks notice will not receive a refund.

Please note: If you register your child for a camp that is outside our required grade range, Save The Bay reserves the right to move them to the appropriate grade camp at any time if space is available. If space is not available in the appropriate camp, your child will not be able to attend camp during your preferred dates and you forfeit your payment.
