SMOKE

JAZZ & SUPPER CLUB

WINTER / SPRING SCHEDULE
February - April 2020

"Folks line up around the block to hear a set by one of jazz's remaining big names, and they are well rewarded: Low-lit chandeliers, comfy sofas, plush carpeting and unobstructed sight lines make it seem like the greats are playing in your living room."
— Time Out NY

"Smoke' — the Upper West Side place on Broadway at 106th — is surely the most genuine, congenial and best-run jazz club in the city. Dinner at Smoke is cuisine, first-class, not just food...a one-star Michelin-quality menu. While you're happy to eat a fine meal, everyone is there for the music and behave so even if a few guide-book-driven tourists show up from time to time."
— HuffPost

Smoke Jazz & Supper Club is located at 2751 Broadway between 105th & 106th Streets, a short trip from Midtown by car, bus or subway. The closest subway stop is at 103rd Street on the 1 train. The closest bus lines are the M60, M7, and M104.

THE SOUND OF NEW YORK JAZZ

FEATURED RESIDENCIES

EVERY MONDAY 7:00, 9:00 & 10:30pm
VINCENT HERRING QUARTET

"The quartet format is a splendid showcase for Herring's full-bodied sound and soulful, fluent phrasing, which his original voice brings to bear on the lush legacy of such modern jazz alto titans as Cannonball Adderley, Sonny Stitt, Phil Woods, and Jackie McLean. Inventing within this heroic, classic reed tradition, Herring fuses instrumental mastery with equal and unified parts of jazz's holy trinity of heart, mind and soul."

— WNPR

EVERY TUESDAYS 7:00, 9:00 & 10:30pm
MIKE LEDONNE GROOVER QUARTET

"Mike LeDonne's splendid Groover Quartet has earned a cozy groove for itself, somewhere between fresh from the oven and the halcyon days of organ combos led by Jimmy Smith, Charles Earland, Jimmy McGriff, Richard "Groove" Holmes, Shirley Scott, Don Patterson and others. While embracing their essential groundwork on the one hand, LeDonne moves steadily forward with the other, lending a more contemporary voice to what has been a popular staple of the jazz repertoire for well over half a century."
