FIRE POWER TOURS WITH FREE GUIDED EXTENDED TOURS OF A 16" GUN TURRET AND AN ENGINE ROOM

Experience a Fire Power self-guided tour of our nation's most decorated and largest battleship! Check out the 16-inch gun turret gun house, track a tomahawk missile launch in the Combat Engagement Center, learn how the crew of the USS New Jersey lived aboard this floating city and more.

For a limited time, guests taking the Fire Power tour have the option to take an extended guided tour of a 16-inch gun turret and/or an engine room. These free guided tours are approximately 20 minutes. Guides will be available in the Crew's Mess near the end of the Fire Power Tour.

DIRECTIONS:

Located on the Delaware River, across from Center City Philadelphia, on the southern end of the Camden Waterfront, near the New Jersey State Aquarium and Tweeter Center. Tours will require climbing ladders and walking through quarters just like it did for the crew when the "Big J" was commissioned. We recommend wearing comfortable walking or athletic shoes and dress casual. Many bags are not permitted on the battleship. These can be securely stowed at the landside Visitor Center.
